The music world will get its first taste of IMMATURE'S 'tude with "Tear It Up," the debut single from ON OUR WORST BEHAVIOUR. The song is also prominently featured in the new animated film "BeBe's Kids" by director Bruce Smith. "BeBe's Kids" also features songs by Maxi Priest, Aretha Franklin, Arrested Development, and The O'Jays. Marques plays an important additional role in "BeBe's Kids," providing the voice for the character Kahlil.

MARQUES: Born in the group's home town, Los Angeles, Marques Houston (nicknamed "Batman" by his bandmates) provides the emotional lead vocals and raps which fuel the IMMATURE engine. Always quick to speak his mind, the young artist doesn't hesitate to point out the differences between IMMATURE and some of their colleagues.

DON: Born in the Phillipines (his full name is Don Fernando Santos) Don's parents moved to the U.S. to seek a better future for their children. Don - "Half Pint" to his crew - quickly grew to love the rap music of his new, American homeland, and has since become the first Asian rapper to be signed to a major record label.

JEROME: Another L.A. native, Jerome Jones joined IMMATURE after Don and Marques watched him dominate a school talent show with his bass playing and dancing style. The dreadlocked Jerome (a.k.a. "Romeo") is the most assertive of the trio when it comes time to keep the adults in line.

Together, the three form a winning team. Unabashedly funky ON OUR WORST BEHAVIOUR invites everyone to let their defenses down, shake the bug out of their booty, and get a little IMMATURE.
