N.W. Regional Conference Of Self Help For Hard Of Hearing Held Here

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and how it can impact and improve the life of every hearing impaired person, will be the major emphasis at the conference. There has been much written about the effect of the law on businesses and government, but very little on how the disabled feel about, and are impacted by, this legislation.

Self Help for Hard of Hearing People, Inc. (SHHP) is a volunteer, non-profit, international organization dedicated to bringing the message of self help to people who are hearing impaired. With more than 270 chapters nationwide, they provide support and education for members, encouraging them to continue active participation in the hearing world, at home and in the community.

OES Student Named Commended Scholar, Places In Top Five Percent

Zanette Johnson, a senior at Oregon Episcopal School, was once again recognized for her outstanding scholastic talent when she was recognized as a Commended Scholar in the 1993 National Merit Scholarship Program. This follows notification earlier this month of Johnson's selection--one of only three students in the state--as a semifinalist in the National 1993 Achievement Scholarship competition for Outstanding Negro Students.

OES is a pre-K through 12, coeducational, independent, college preparatory school in the Episcopal tradition. A full boarding program is offered in grades 9 through 12. Exceptional teachers engage students in small classes that stress participation, creativity and a passion for learning and living. Within a traditional framework, strong programs in the fine and performing arts and athletics encourage students to become involved. Located on the Pacific Rim, the School emphasizes global studies and an international outlook. Virtually all graduates attend fine colleges. Responsible citizenship and community service are important at OES--a School where students are encouraged to reach their fullest potential in a loving and caring environment.
