Observer Player Of The Week

Benson's Milton

BY JOHN PHILLIPS
This week's Observer "Player of the Week" is junior outside hitter Mandesa Milton of the Benson Girls Volleyball team.

Mandesa led the Techsters to first place in the PIL, with wins over Wilson 4-15, 15-7, 15-13; and over Roosevelt 15-13, 15-4, in a double dual match last week at Roosevelt.

Milton had nine kills, six coming in the final game with Wilson. At one point in the first game against Roosevelt, she served 10 consecutive points.

The Techsters are 21-5 overall, and 10-0 in the PIL.

Ms. Mandesa Milton, we at the Portland Observer, take our hats off to you for being such an outstanding high school volleyball player, and this week's "Player of the Week."

Jefferson, Marshall Share PIL Lead

BY JOHN PHILLIPS

Jefferson slipped by Benson 14-7 on Friday night at Civic Stadium, while Marshall shutout Madison by the score of 42-0 on Saturday at Marshall.

Jefferson is a team that scores a lot of points, but on this night, it was the defense, known as the "Supreme Court", that did the job for Coach Mark Pinder. The Demos had a 6-0 lead at halftime on an eight yard run by Jochannon Lowe. After Thomas Jacob's one yard run and Mark Burke's two point conversion, the Demos were up 14-0. It wasn't until four minutes to go in the game that Benson got on the board with a 22 yard pass from Desmond Faison to Touheed Jermany.

The win put the Demos at 4-2, now tied with Marshall. Last week's ratings revealed a six-way tie for the PIL lead.

Marshall had a field day with Madison, leading 28-0 at halftime and coasting to an easy 42-0 victory. Past Observer "Player of the Week", Tom Steward, had two scores on runs of three and nine yards to lead the Minutemen.

In other PIL games, Franklin upset Wilson 19-6, as Derrick Brame ran for two touchdowns on runs of two and 23 yards. Franklin and Wilson are both 3-3. Also 3-3 is Grant, after a 20-7 win over Cleveland behind Michael Himes' two touchdowns. Cleveland's record is also 3-3. Roosevelt had its best offensive showing in years and clobbered Lincoln 47-12. It was Roosevelt's second win of the season. Isaac Legrone scored three times on runs of 13, 14 and 66 yards. Roosevelt will get better and better with every week of play.

Next week's games are: Friday, Benson at Lincoln, and Madison at Jefferson. On Saturday, Wilson at Cleveland; Franklin at Marshall; and Grant visits Roosevelt.
