Celebrating The Life Of DELORIA ANNETTE WARREN

June 18, 1960 - November 9, 1992

Deloria Annette Warren was born in Portland, Oregon. She was the daughter of Sylvain and Arizona Warren, the sister of Vernell Warren, the aunt of Brittany and Vernell Warren Jr., the sister-in-law of Jan Warren, the God-daughter of Farlene Gaither and the niece of Mae Fern Green, William Warren, Willie Love, Jr., Azel Love and L.D. Love, and Godmother of Curtis Tillery, Jr. But more than this, she was a light in the lives of those who knew her.

A graduate of John Adams High School, Deloria received a Bachelor of Arts degree in business administration from Portland State University and, in 1990, a Juris Doctorate degree from Northwestern School of Law at Lewis & Clark College. She was employed as an attorney with the Metropolitan Public Defenders Office. At the time of her passing, she was professionally representing children in juvenile court.

The family suggests that contributions be made to: The Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation Greater Portland Chapter, c/o First Interstate Bank, any branch. The family deeply appreciates the sincere, genuine and loving tributes, cards, flowers, prayers, phone calls, visits and many other expressions of kindness and concern. We wish God's Blessings upon each of you.

Too slow for those who wait,
Too swift for those who fear,
Too long for those who grieve,
Too short for those who rejoice;
But for those who love,
Time is not.

The New Hope Baptist Church is extending an open invitation to the city as they welcome Rev. Jointer and family to the church and the city of Portland.

25th Anniversary "Showers Of Blessings"

Alfred and Rosemary Daniels greeted family and friends for their 25th Wedding Anniversary.

The couple stood under a large white arch with silver bows and a picture of the couple in 1967 and what the couple looks like today.

The luncheon was held at the Red Lion Columbia River in the View Ballroom.

The theme was "Showers of Blessings."

The water affect started at the guest book table and extended to a huge fountain in the center of the room.

The room was beautifully decorated with greenery, and, elevated on risers, were the pianist Jerome Patten and Elder Clifton Wells. Music filled the room as friends and family gathered.

The buffet table reminded everyone of the occasion with a huge iced 25th carving.

In one corner of the room was a video of the 1967 wedding, with music arranged by Rosemary's brother, Michael Jackson of Portland.

Judy and Charles Trotter, cousins of the couple and the owners of Solutions Graphics, arranged the video. Everyone was amazed to see the bride and groom moved from the top of the Wedding cake to the family photograph, and then how the bride tossed her bouquet to Bobbie Greer. It floated across the screen. The cake table was beautifully decorated with two fountains and a three-tier cake. Guests were delighted with the cake, a combination half-chocolate and white cake. The couple topped off the cake with individual pictures cakes, one of Alfred and one with Rosemary's picture.

Al Jr., (nineteen years old) was the host for his parents' anniversary. The head table was at the entrance of the ballroom with the women in white and the men wearing black. They were Elizabeth Jackson, James and Evelyn Torrence, Bill and Ellen Duggens, Robert and Geneva Bedford, Mary Coleman, Veronica Jackson, and Audrey Mitchell of Seattle, Washington.

All the tables were beautifully decorated with white linen, silver candleabras, bows and mirror tops, and accented with an oval picture of the couple in 1992.

Three huge posters of the wedding party of 1967 were on display around the room. Michael (brother) said he has certainly changed. He was 5 years old and was the ring bearer in 1967. Lanetta Lockhart was only 5 years old and the flower girl. Michael and Lanetta are now 30 and remember the fun of the 1967 wedding.

Beverly Johnson and Paul Michelle (Seattle) read the History of Alfred and Rosemary.

Deborah Kimbrough sang "You Bring Out the Best In Me." Vernon Brazzle sang "Flesh of My Flesh."

The couple closed by thanking everyone for attending, but most of all, to God for His showers of blessing these past 25 years.
