Obituary

Dr. Charlotte Bibb Harrison, 63, retired education administrator and former Portland resident, died Sunday, Nov. 22, in Oklahoma City of complications following a heart attack.

Dr. Harrison, who began her education career in Portland with the National Teacher Corps, taught in the Portland Public Schools and was the associate director of the Portland Urban Teacher Education Program and an Oregon State University instructor in 1973-74. As a curriculum specialist, she trained other educators in Oregon, Virginia and Oklahoma, and published teachers' manuals for developing tests and course work.

She retired in Oklahoma City, where she was a teacher, coordinator for comprehensive arts education and later director of staff development for Oklahoma City Public Schools. She was listed in the 1982-83 Who's Who in the South and Southwest.

Dr. Harrison was a member of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, Phi Delta Kappa, Links Inc., Tes Trams and the Set Club. She attended Church of the Redeemer in Oklahoma City, where she belonged to the Episcopal Church Women.

She is survived by her husband, Alvin Edward Harrison Jr.; four children, including former Portlanders John King Bibb and Sharon Ellen Bibb; and three grandchildren.

A service was held Saturday, Nov. 28, in Oklahoma City.

Untimely Death

Commissioner Kafoury today expressed her deep regret at the untimely death of Bob Crooks, a Portland lawyer whose practice focused on low-income housing.

Along with representing numerous non-profit housing developers, Crooks devoted substantial volunteer time to many community efforts -- serving as the Chair of Transition Projects, Chair of the Union Gospel Ministries, and a key member of the planning team that produced the City's Comprehensive Housing Affordability Strategy. It was Crooks' devoted legal work that paved the way for the City's successful effort to assist a community non-profit acquire the Dominion Capital inventory.

"This is a terrible loss to all of us," Kafoury said. "I don't know of one other person who has worked as hard or accomplished as much for low-income housing in such a short period of time."

Crooks died of an unexpected heart attack while running Saturday evening.

Community Awards To Be Given At First Annual Gospel Concert Featuring Heaven Bound

11 individuals and community organizations have been identified to receive community support awards on December 12, 1992. The awards will be given out during a gospel concert featuring music from Heaven Bound and several other local groups. The event entitled "God Is Real, He Works Through Others" will be held at Fellowship Missionary Baptist Church, 4009 N. Missouri, at 5 pm. The community is invited to join in this celebration. Admission is free.

Award recipients include, Joyce Harris, Self Enhancement Inc, MYCAP, Rev. Johnny Pock, Sisters of the Road Cafe, Kathy Roberson, Freedom in the Son, Renee Timms, the House of Umoja, Georgina Jones, and the late Steve Scott. The awards are in recognition of their contribution to the fight against drugs and alcohol abuse, the reduction of gang involvement and breaking the cycle of dysfunction in our community.

The project is sponsored by the Blackeyed Peas, a gathering of women dedicated to personal growth and positive change through sharing of sisterhood and friendship. We have come together to promote healthy changes for women and people in recovery in hopes that our message of healing and well-being will be extended throughout our families and community.

Free Health Screening Offered

The hospitals and health care organizations of Legacy Health System invite area seniors (age 55+) to attend a Free Health Screening. The screening provides numerous important health tests and services, including: blood test (cholesterol, blood sugar, and others), general physical assessment by nurses, blood pressure, dental and oral cancer check, vision and glaucoma check, hearing test, lung health check, nutrition counselling, breast cancer self-examination instructions, and others.

For those desiring the full blood test, it is suggested you arrive in a fasting state - no food or drink (except water and medications) for the previous 12 hours. Known diabetics should follow their regular eating schedule.

Screenings are conducted weekly at different locations throughout the Portland Metropolitan area. Please call Carmen Lawson, R.N. at 241-3478 to obtain a schedule of screening dates and locations.
