

Distinguished Jefferson Alumnus Honored Guest In "Keep Living The Dream" Celebration

BY MATTIE ANN CALLIER-SPEARS

Monday, January 18th, the official holiday for Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday celebration to be held at the Jefferson High School's Performing Arts Center, the Honorable United States Ambassador to the United Nations, Edward J. Perkins, will introduce a new award which will be an incentive to the scholastic achievers of Jefferson High School, Portland, Oregon.

Ambassador Perkins is an alumnus of Jefferson High School and Lewis S. Clark College.

The Portland community is deeply honored to have Ambassador Perkins grace our presence and to initiate such a prestigious award. This award will serve as a focal-point for many Jefferson high School students, year-after-year.

Ambassador Perkins never forgotten his roots and he seeks to make a difference in the present climate felt in the Portland Public School system by sharing his blessings with those young men and women coming-up behind him.

Ambassador Perkins is seeking ways to improve world trade, education, and peace-keeping during a period of great change and promise.

All those unable to attend the program at Jefferson High School can view the program on Cable Channels 30 & 38 or by listening to KBOO Radio 90.7 FM from 12 noon to 4 pm.

"Keep Living The Dream" is Oregon's largest King Holiday celebration. Tune-in and become a part of the festivities.
