Workshop To Address Juvenile Sex Offenders

"Boys and Girls Who Abuse: The Problem of Juvenile Sex Offenders" is the title of a workshop to assist clinicians in understanding the cause of abuse in juveniles and current methods of treatment. Co-sponsored by the Multnomah County Office of Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services and the Pacific University Psychological Service Center, the workshop will be held Tuesday, February 16 from 2:15 to 5 p.m. in the Portland Building, Meeting Room C, 1120 SW 5th Ave.

The workshop is designed for psychologist, professional counselors' marriage and family therapists, clinical social workers, other mental health workers, administrators, and students. Participants will have the opportunity to define the population of juveniles who abuse, identify normal and abnormal sexual behavior, define the consequences of offensive behavior for the victim and the offender, and discuss basic treatment components.

For more information, please call the Pacific University Psychological Service Center, 220-0390.
