March Of Dimes White Rose Award Nominations

The Lewis and Clark Chapter March of Dimes invites civic organizations, community leaders, professional groups, businesses and individuals to submit names of potential honorees for its annual White Rose Awards. The honorees will be recognized at the 11th annual white rose Luncheon Scheduled for May 4, 1993, at the Hilton Hotel in Portland.

Nomination forms are available by calling the March of Dimes office at 222-9434. Nominations for honorees are due at the March of Dimes office by Wednesday, February 10, 1993, at 5 p.m.

The White Rose Luncheon, "A Salute to Women of Achievement," is held each year to recognize and honor women of achievement for their exemplary work in both the community and in the professional sphere. In the past,

White rose honorees have represented a wide range of interests and the diversity of the region.

Julie Emry of KATU TV will serve as Mistress of Ceremonies for the luncheon and will provide a brief background on each honoree and present the awards. Jackie Vanderberg and Donna Baca, both of Portland, are the White Rose committee co-chairs for the 1993 luncheon.

The White Rose Luncheon is a benefit for the Lewis and Clark Chapter, March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation. Funds raised will support the Campaign for Healthier Babies which focuses on reducing the incidence of low birthweight, birth defects and infant mortality. The Lewis and Clark Chapter March of Dimes serves counties in northern Oregon and southwestern Washington.
