1993 Portland Observer Girls All-Star Basketball Team

"Player Of The Year"
Denmark Reid Jefferson 6'0" Sr.

Portland Observer Player Of The Year Is:

Denmark Reid of Jefferson High School. The 6 foot guard led the Demos to a 14 to 9 record in the 1992-93 season, with a 24.6 scoring average. A deadly shooter from the 3 point range, his overall game was much improved this season.

Denmark will also play his college basketball in his home town, signing to play at the University of Portland next season.

We at the Portland Observer take our hats off to Denmark and look forward to his having an outstanding four years at the University of Portland.

Wilson, Benson Lead P.I.L. Into Boys State Tournament

Wilson And Benson Lead The P.I.L. Into Boys State Tournament

The Co-League champs of the P.I.L. will open play in the boys OSAA state basketball tournament this week.

The tournament started Thursday with Grant losing to Beaverton from the Metro League, 63 to 45. The Generals were led by K.J. Dawkins with 27 points. Cleveland started out on a good note when they ran past Forest Grove 85 to 65. Leif Spencer scored 28 points and teammate Jamain Branch helped out with 23.

On Saturday, the Warriors came up short in their game with Lakeridge, going down 84 to 65 on the Pacers home court. Brandon Moyer came up big that night with 27 points, but the rest of the Warriors had an off night.

Wilson opened play Tuesday night (March 2) at 8:45pm in a game with Tigard. Benson got by Sunset 39-36 to move into the tournament with a 8:45pm game on Wednesday (March 3) with Sheldon.

Portland Observer Coach Of The Year Is:

Jack Bertell of Wilson High School. Bertell led a very young team to a co-championship in the P.I.L. this season with a 17 to 5 record.

In 1992 Bertell won a state championship as the head coach of the Jefferson High School Democrats. His overall coaching record in seven years is 139 wins and only 33 losses. We would like to wish the Trojans well in the boys state tournament and congratulate Coach Jack Bertell for being named The Portland Observer coach of the year.
