Task Force To Patronize Restaurants

Portland's Black Dollar Days Task Force will continue the campaign to stimulate the growth of African American Restaurants in north and northeast Portland. Two restaurants shall be targeted to patronize on June 16 and 17. They are Toni's Soul Food and Steens Kitchen. Last month the target was Doris' Cafe.

An early morning breakfast will be held at Toni's on Wednesday, June 16, beginning at 6:30 am. The restaurant, located at 3962 NE M.L.K. Jr., Blvd. offers a warm atmosphere and bills itself as offering "Great Home Cooked Meals." Toni's provides a call ahead service for drive thru window customers for reservations call 249-TONI.

On Thursday evening, June 17, Task Force members and friends are encouraged to have dinner at Steens Kitchen. "Specializing in home style cooking," Steens is located at 7332 NE M.L.K. Jr. Blvd. Carnell Crum, president of the Portland chapter, will be on hand to discuss the Task Force and the various programs and strategies of economic empowerment it plans to bring to Portland.

According to Crum, "The organization is committed to a process by which African Americans organize for themselves and build a unified base addressing the real cause of poverty and economic inequalities in our community." The support of an African American owned restaurant is an effort organized by the Black Dollar Days Task Force to strengthen African American owned businesses.

The restaurant program is modeled after a similar program that has proven successful in Seattle's central area. It is funded by a City of Seattle Community Development Block Grant. The Seattle program provides business assistance, training and marketing strategies to restaurant owners. Thus far the program has been exciting and inspiring. Matching needs to available resources has been skillfully cultivated. An increase in revenues can be seen in participating restaurants.

The public is invited to participate in all Black Dollars Days Task Force events. For additional information call 284-0322.

The Good Humor Man's Monumental Tour

The Good Humor Man is back and making "The Classic", monumental, twenty-city, tour across America this summer, which included a stop in Portland from June 4-6.

Highlights of the Portland visit included a stop at the new Safeway store (72nd & NE Sandy Blvd.) in Rose City from 10:00-11:30am on Friday, June 4 and the Rose Festival Opening Night Fireworks that evening at 9:45pm (New Park Memorial by Hawthorne Bridge); and the Rose Festival Starlight Parade on Saturday, June 5, at 8:30pm (on Taylor between Park and Broadway). On Sunday, June 6, the Good Humor Truck completed its route at the annual Rose Bud Picnic for handicapped children in Oaks Park from 11:30am to 2:00pm.

Two uniform clad Good Humor Men and a renovated, old fashioned, Good humor truck will tour twenty cities and giveaway free "The Classics" Ice Cream Bars to kids of all ages. In addition, the Good Humor Men will distribute nostalgic posters, collectible postcards, and Polaroid photos taken with the Good Humor Man.

The tour celebrates Good Humor's role in American history as the inventor of "Ice Cream on a Stick", the neighborhood ice cream truck and the friendly Ice Cream Man. In keeping with the historical aspect of the tour, the truck will visit American monuments and landmarks including: St. Louis' Arch, Seattle's Space Needle, New York's Staten Island, and Washington DC's Smithsonian's National Postal Museum. The truck will also appear at other family oriented sites including: Portland's Rose Festival, Kansas City's Zoo, and Chicago's Lincoln Park Zoo.

"The Classics" ice cream bars, given away on the summer tour, were once sold only on neighborhood ice cream trucks. Now "The Classics" are in grocery stores across the country and available in five flavors including: Chocolate Eclair, Strawberry Shortcake, Candy Crunch, toasted Almond, and, the newest addition to the line, The Original Vanilla Bar. The Original Vanilla ice cream bar is the product featured on the side of the old Good Humor trucks. In 1992, "the classics" were the number one selling new frozen novelty brand introduction, and Chocolate Eclair was the number one selling new frozen novelty, according to AC Nielsen ratings.

In conjunction with the tour, Good Humor will air national television commercials with the familiar tagline, "The name will take you back, the taste will take you away." And in keeping with Good Humor's concern for value, national coupons will be available for "The Classics" in local newspapers across the country on July 25 and August 10.

Gold Bond-Good Humor is the industry leader in manufacturing frozen novelties in the United States. According to April 1993 AC Nielsen reports, Gold Bond-Good Humor ranks number one in volume (18.1) and value (16.3) share in the frozen novelty category. The Gold Bond-Good Humor ice cream company offers a full line of product ranging from premium adult to children's frozen novelties, including well known brands such as Popsicle, Good Humor, and Klondike.

Peanut Butter & Jam Turns Ten With Hot Horns, Cold Sundaes

This summer, the Peanut Butter and Jam Sessions turn ten with a special opening day concert on June 15. For the last nine years, this series of noontime shows has been eagerly anticipated by downtown office workers, school kids, and lunchtime shoppers. It's the best place in town to enjoy the summer weather, grab a bite to eat, and check out the best of the local music scene. All that's missing is late hours, dank rooms and cigarette smoke.

Brought to you once again by our friends at The Business Journal and U.S. Bank, the eighteen concerts will run from June 15 to August 12, every Tuesday and Thursday at noon. There's music for every taste, including blues, country, salsa, world-beat, rock and classical music.

Johnny Limbo and the Lugnuts, Manuela Figueroa & La Mayor Salsa, Vern Collins & Cross County, and Lloyd Jones are just a few of the names that will be burning up the bricks throughout the summer. Our popular children's concert is July 6 and this year's performers are Mike and Carleen McComack and the Garden Variety Band.

We couldn't think of a better band to kick off our tenth year than Perfect 10. Portland's hottest horn band. The group plays Motown, rock, funk-all the best party music. And while Perfect 10 is making hot music, cold sundaes will help celebrate our tenth year. Darigold will be dishing up a special peanut butter ice cream and Hoody's and Walls Berry Farm will deliver the toppings for a peanut butter and jam sundae.

Great music, free sundaes, and beautiful summer weather. Don't miss our tenth year of jammin'.
