

Grant High School's National Honor Society (NHS) Elected Its New Executive Officers

The membership of Grant High School's National Honor Society (NHS) elected its new Executive officers Thursday, 20 May 1993.

The newly-elected Officers are now Juniors and will be Seniors during the 1993-94 school year. They are: Alisa Harvey, President; Shannon Knepper, Secretary; Public Relations Officers Tara L. Johnson and Jeff Seymour; Vice-President Alexis Kourafas and Treasurer Colleen Warrens.

Tara is the only Black member of Grant's National Honor Society at present. As Co-Public Relations Officer, Tara says she intends to work to increase and encourage Black representation. Putting words after action, Tara has been volunteering as a tutor in the Grant Success program.

Tara has also volunteered with the Forest Service and she was awarded a summer research apprenticeship at the Oregon Health Sciences University last summer. She is a student in Grant's Institute for Science & Mathematics and has consistently received Superior and High Honors throughout her high school career. In 1989 she received an award from the Black Employees' Telecommunications Association (BETA) and in 1990 she was recognized as state winner in an essay contest by the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR).

Tara's future focus is towards the bio-medical technology field. Tara is the daughter of Lulu R. Stroud-Johnson and the granddaughter of the late Kelley Dolphus Stroud.

THE AIR FORCE HAS JOBS

We're hiring. And, if you're a high school graduate we've got an opportunity for you. We'll train you. Plus, you'll get hands-on experience in a great Air Force job. Then, when your Air Force enlistment is up, those skills will be in demand in a civilian job.

In addition to training and a good paycheck, the Air Force will help you get an education. We'll help you pay for college while you're in the Air Force. Also, we have a two-year degree program and a plan to provide money for school even after your Air Force tour is over.

How far you go is up to you. If you are 17 to 27 years old, visit your local Air Force recruiter or call: 1-800-423-USAFA.
