Tina Turner, a rock and roll legend and a remarkable woman with phenomenal talent and it couldn't be more apparent as shown on the Big Screen, "What's Love Got To Do With It?"

This is a powerful movie filled with extraordinary life scenes of a woman overcoming the impossible odds. Angela Bassett is a serious actress. She has given an phenomenal performance.

Here's How Playing Golf Can Improve Oregon's Schools

Washington Mutual, which recently acquired Pacific First Bank, has put a new spin on putting: Anyone who sinks three out of three putts at one of the bank's traveling putting greens wins $50 contribution to school of their choice.

Washington Mutual/Pacific First Bank are sponsoring the putting contest as part of their involvement in the annual Fred Meyer Challenge. It's free to participate and all equipment is provided.

Nine nine-foot, kidney-shaped greens will travel throughout Oregon and Southwest Washington to 47

Washington Mutual/Pacific First financial centers located in Fred Meyer or Safeway stores from June 12 through August 7.

Schools will be the real winners during the summer putting contests. Washington Mutual created the "Challenge Education Fund" to help schools purchase much needed equipment and supplies for their students. People who make three putts may make a $50 contribution from the fund to any public or private elementary school, middle school, high school or university, contributions may be designated for such things as a library fund or computer equipment. There's no limit to the number of people who may participate in the contest.

For each putt a person makes, name will be entered into a drawing for two tickets (a $60 value) to The Fred Meyer Challenge August 22-24 at the Oregon Golf Club in West Linn, Oregon. Winners will be drawn at the end of the day at each financial center.

Washington Mutual, the sponsor of this year's Pro-Am at The Fred Meyer Challenge, is a leading supporter of education in the Northwest.

Tony Toni Tone

An Opinion

BY TONY WASHINGTON

Realizing that hard work pays off must be a very trying experience. Ask Raphael one of the three members of TONY TONI TONE. The Portland Observer had a opportunity to talk about this with Raphael.

One of the most impressive facts about the group is that they are really dedicated to getting their point across to their followers. They seem to keep excelling at a rate that is truly unbelievable.

Their most recent album release, Tony Toni Tone on Mercury Records is definitely a direct indication that the best is yet to come. Not to take anything away from their new release, but let's face it, the brothers really GET OFF on this one. TONY TONI TONE contains such cuts as: "If I Had No Loot", "Leavin'", "Slow Wine" and "Ex-Girlfriend", just to name a few. One of the most impressive cuts, I feel, that will make it big is "ANNIVERSARY".

Where these brothers get the ideas about lyrics I don't know. Let's take a pocket check on this one. It's On! You would think that the stardom that comes with the territory may be tough in their eyes, however I tend to feel delighted with their work.

These brothers really "Got it Goin' On". Well focused, honest and sincere about their work has been a great plus for them. Young brothers, I'm with you all the way, and intend to stay in your corner."

"What Goes Around" is a 'bad' cut also, and really speaks about real things in everyday life. I'm a fan of easy listening R&B and this is right up my alley. Raphael expresses a great deal of concern for sticking with his beliefs, ideas and goals. "For the group, achievements haven't been easy", comments Raphael. "We were not as fortunate as some other groups. Receiving recognition didn't come over night. It was a long and difficult experience for us", Raphael explains.

I would like to commend these three brothers from Oakland, California for their outstanding achievements

In The World Of Sports

BY JOHN PHILLIPS

....The Chicago Bulls will not sweep the Phoenix Suns in the NBA Finals, but they will Three-Peat.

The Suns and Bulls played in the second longest game in NBA finals history by going three overtime periods on Sunday, with the Suns coming out with a 129-121 win in Chicago. The TV rating must have been very good because no one left their living rooms not even to go to the bathroom, I didn't.

As great a game as it was, it was only one game. Now Phoenix needs to win three more, with two of the possible four games left are in Chicago. The Bulls will now take it one game at a time, and I think will win the next two. Remember I picked the Bulls to win the NBA finals in five games, and I'm not going to back off now, Three-Peat.

....This Saturday night at Memorial Coliseum the Portland Pride will take to the turf in their home opener in the Continental Indoor Soccer League. The Pride will Host The Sacramento Knights at 7:30pm. There will be a nice crowd on hand and there are still very good seats available. You can call the Portland Pride office for ticket information at 224-BEST another note about the CISL is, the league has signed Reebok as the official ball of the CISL.

Reebok plans to support its sponsorship of the CISL by promoting and advertising the CISL soccer line in advertising and collateral materials. During all CISL games, immediately following each goal scored by the home team, players will kick replica game balls provided by Reebok in to the crowd.

The official CISL ball will be gold, silver and white and consist of Triangular Designs.
