JUNE 16, 1993 • THE PORTLAND OBSERVER

PAGE A2

School Is Out, Except At The White House

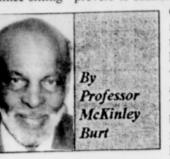

The pained outcry of the nation's of Mr. Charlie. black media was unanimous in its dejectedly on the steps of the University of Pennsylvania law school building. The fate of 'true believers'? From one end of the country to the other, blacks are voicing their open-mouth incredulity at President pect, and intelligently, can prepare to Clinton's ante-bellum ("good nigger") type statement which could be para-

But, isn't that what I said last indictment of the administration's week in respect to the President's botched process in the Lani Guinier. It Arkansas performance--and isn't that has been many a year since we have what I so strongly intimated last Sepseen a news photo so poignant and tember when I used an old Chinese tragic as that of the nominee sitting proverb to caution against unbridled enthusiasm regrading the election choices: "A known devil is always preferable to an unknown devil!" The obvious logic being that in the first instance you know what to excounter the mischief.

That "pained outcry" in the black phrased, "why I really like this col- media has risen to a crescendo as more ored gal--if she needed the money, I and more Democrat "true believers" would let her have $5,000 right out of discover that the band wagon was my personal bank account!" We sup- missing a wheel. Rep. Cynthia pose it boils down to a twist on an old McKinney discovers that Clinton's adage, "you can take Mr. Charlie out proposed expansion of the earned inof Dixie, but you can't take Dixie out come tax credit for the working poor and increased spending for Head Start, in health programs could win Senate can design or implement a credible ger". The 'childhood immunization' where? Confusion reigns supreme, and situation is especially deplorable; con- far past that "100 days" into the hind the industrialized nations of the key to 'unlock the deck', while third-world countries of Asia and Af- White House Press Secretary rica White Democrats are expressing the same degree of dismay as the bandwagon begins to wobble in the Senate. "Gridlock seems alive and well (among Democrats of all people) as those on the Finance Committee are we. would raise energy taxes less than Clinton proposed and make up the care and Medicaid. However, Senator John D. Rockefeller, (D) W. Virginia says "I won't vote for the energy bill, unless the proposed cuts in Medicaid, which benefits the poor and Medicare, for the elderly and disabled, are moderated considerably"

It is a given that even if deep cuts Northwest group, agency or politician White House childhood immunizations, Medicare approval, there is no way they could "strategy" for resolving our problems sider this, America lags not only be- presidency, no one seems to have Europe, but behind the five principal the band wagon teeters precariously, Oregon's economic future is in abso-Dee Dee Meyers says things like "We want to see the process go forward--we'll make very clear what the president wants to see, but the thing we're most concerned about is the final product". So are we, dear lady, so

Then, closer to home there is that matter of Clinton's "Northwest difference by further shrinking Medi- Forest Strategy". Have you reviewed Webster's definition of "Strategy"? Even our neighborhood 'Morning Coffee Council' of unelected politicians correctly predicted a growing conflict between? Economic growth any and environmental protection. No and Medicaid "are all in grave dan- pass the House. Spend where, tax with taxes, jobs, education or job-training direction, if it is not known how the administration is going to come down on this issue. This is beyond "gridlock".

lute limbo. and now to top it all off, the administration cannot decide (at this writing) who to nominate for the Supreme Court vacancy; Interior Secretary, Bruce Babbit or federal judge, Stephen Breyer, an experienced jurist. It's either amateur night again or a promised political payoff. Babbit seems to be the obvious choice to continue in his role of resolving the economic crisis engendered by the lumber versus environment combatants. Why in the world would President Clinton remove him and prolong the economic agony and gridlock while paralysis of the process to resolve the an acceptable successor is found--If

No, school is still in session at the

This Way For Black Empowerment The Fight For Justice In L.A. Is Not Over

brutally beat Rodney King.

The Los Angeles authorities have ever spend a day in jail.) handled this case in a way that demonstrates that they have learned nothing from the national drama that began accommodation with the poor and the night a citizen videotaped the L, A. police doing what they do all the time, usually with total impunity: brutaliz- ens of lives and destroyed the physical pressed. ing people of color. Right from the and social infrastructure of a commustart, these three young men (and four nity, there will be no Kerner Commis- L.A. 4+ Defense Committee orgaothers who were a danger to the com- sion convened, as there was after the nized a peaceful press conference and munity. Young Damian and his two- Watts riots, to try to "get to the root of rally. Hundreds of riot-equipped of-Los Angeles courts will begin to try tempted murder, but with "torture." American economy through their the case of three young Black men- Their bail has been set at up to short-sighted profiteering-can no Damian Williams, Antoine Miller and $580,000, which virtually ensures that longer afford the reforms that might Henry Watson--whom the police have they will sit in jail until the end of their be suggested by such inquiry. Their accused of beating a white truck driver trial. (In contrast, bail for the four only interest now is in using these who drove into their neighborhood policemen who carried out the offi- tragedies to teach us a lesson. during the April 29, 1992 rebellion in cially sanctioned torture of Rodney South Central Los Angeles following King was set at only $5,000; with the being organized to scapegoat the young the acquittal of the four cops who two convictions on appeal, there is a chance that none of those cops will

> It is no longer the policy of the powers-that-be to try to come to a oppressed. In the wake of a social disaster in Los Angeles that cost doz- that context have been brutally re-

The case against the L.A. 4+ is men and cover up what provoked the disturbances-the acquittal verdict. The undeniably brutal beating of the white truck driver, Reginald Denny, has been totally extracted from the social and political context in which it happened. Attempts to put the beating back into

Last December 14, the Free the co-defendants have been charged, not the problem." No, those who rule ficers poured onto the site of the rally ing them with plastic bullets, and of those arrested were not charged unnecessary and excessive force.

that here is a critical difference-both moral and historical-between a slavemaster beating a slave, and the slave, rising up and taking a stick to the L.A. 4+. On June 17, I will welcome slave-master. Reginald Denny was no to Harlem Ms. Georgiana Williams, slave-master, but an innocent and Damian's mother, who has risen above unfortunate casualty of the blind rage this tragedy to become a leader in the this corrupt and racist system inspires. fight against a system that is stigma-There are liberals (many of whom ran tizing and killing our young Blackmen. for mayor of Los Angeles this spring) We all must listen to this sister, and who profess to see a kind of moral make her fight our own.

In a little more than a month, the just with aggravated assault and at- America-and who have ruined the and attacked the protesters, hitting symmetry between the white cops who them with batons and gun butts, shoot- beat Rodney King, and the Black youths (whose identities, it is imporsubjecting them to tear gas, hand- tant to remind ourselves, have not cuffs, and Mace. Sixty people were been established) who beat Reginald arrested, many indiscriminately. Most Denny. These politicians want a "single standard of justice" applied in with any crimes, supporting the De- court, but are remarkably complacent fense Committee's contention that about the double standard of justice innocent people were subjected to that rules all aspects of daily life in Los Angeles and throughout our country. Brother Malcolm X once noted African Americans and their allies in all of you; others communities must not be complacent, but must be on the front line of the fight for justice for the actly what resources were already at by Professor McKinley Burt to the Economic Series' prompted me their respective groups regarding the spread not only to other cities in to furnish several illustrations that indicated I was listening to them. In particular, I gave that anecdote about the young man aided in launching an industrial cleaning business--a true story that was simultaneously rewarding and tragic.

interest from both individuals and organizations. In consequence I have been asked to speak at several meetings. Additionally, two have requested consulting services in the design of programs to further the in- not familiar with this marvelous ex- idea died still-born. However, a volvement of minority vouth--male ample of enlightened "self-help", this white friend of mine, who was the and female -- in "For Profit" business minister organized his congregation organist at a large downtown, enterprise. Should there be any other of hundreds of urban poor blacks into 99% white church, leaped at the idea type of activity for poor folks in this a for-profit corporation that contracted as a vehicle to employ the urban poor republic?

endeavors are supported by more vices--backed by the necessary trainwas the case about 15 years ago mem- like daycare and similar social ser- trix' which would first determine ex-

The Portla

OREGON'S OLDEST AFF

Established in 197

Last week, the replies of readers asked me to make presentations to all expatiations, and in various forms design of economic activities the America and Canada but to Europe groups could pursue. In both these Asia and Africa. Billions in economic cases, the interest was initiated by wealth were created. members who years earlier had been students in my business classes at in Scandinavia, Germany, Japan, Portland State University. One in par- India and Nigeria. There was a branch ticular, a strong supporter of his in Portland, "P.O.I.C." (Portland Op-The story excited quite a bit of church, remembered a classroom portunities Industrial Corporation), model I developed around the eco- though, like many of the 'franchises', nomic programs developed by the it was not church-housed. My Reverend Leon Sulivan for his church former student the church member. in Philadelphia (Circa 1969).

with industry and the general market- and homeless to whom they minis-I certainly hope that these place to produce products and ser- tered.

enthusiasm and commitment than ing programs; also support programs consultant's contract to design a 'mabers of several black organizations vices. The Project succeeded beyond

I recall that there were branches was unable to gain the interest Just briefly here, for those of you or support of the 'elders' and the

I spent several weeks on a

THANK YOU FOR READING

THE PORTLAND OBSERVER

dump trucks, bulldozers, backhoes, need to assess the training, skills and version of COINTELPRO, ETC." experience of both the unemployed Before speculating that far, perhaps and the employed, as well as time we should examine ourselves first and availability. It is easy to see that one the cultural grooves from which most could organize a rather effective pro- seem unable to escape. Generations of gram around these data banks. There activists are succeeding generations was never any doubt about its success of those whose ambitions and liveliand later I did something similar for a hoods are tied to "escalating the qual-Native American Program. The people ity of life of the poor". had the enthusiasm to market their resources. Why don't we? Scaled-down versions are quite possible.

Now, I note that several of you blacks and whites whose standard of hand, what did the congregation own readers who are "striking back from life depends on the preservation of a and how available: tools, pickup trucks, the empire" are voicing suspicions non-economic minded ghetto to which that there must be some type of con- they can sell their social and philocompressors, steam-cleaners, spray- spiracy in force against 'real' Black sophical wares. How long should we ers, lathes, even vacant lots and empty Economic Development -- "agents be led by people who cannot operate a storefronts. And then there was the loose in the community"-- "a new corner store or make a door stop?

Perhaps the economic trap in which African Americans find themselves serves the purposes of those

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Satruday

June 19

Mary K. Richardson Director of In School Scouting Columbia Pacific Council 2145 SW Frount Avc. Portland, Oregon 97201 (503)226-3423

ational Black Theatre Festival

Two of the stars of ABC-TV's W. Johnston (second from right), every other year, the internationally "Homefront" series, Dick Anthony chairman and CEO of R.J. Reynolds acclaimed festival this year features Williams (left) and Hattie Winston Tobacco Co., who announced a performances by more than 20 helped announce plans for the $125,000 commitment by his com- Black theater companies from 1993 National Black Theatre pany to the festival; Will Jenkins across the nation, workshops and Festival, which will be held here (second from left), president of seminars for Black theater August 2-7. The announcement the N.C. Black Repertory Theatre; groups, and a host of celebrities also featured Larry Leon Hamlin and Herman LeVern Jones, special including Sidney Poitier, Della (right), the festival's founder, assistant to the festival's producer. Reese, Harry Belafonte and Gregory producer and artistic director; James Launched in 1989 and held Hines.

Joyc The PORTLAND OBSER 4747 NE Martin Luther Portland, Oreg 503-288-0033 · Fa Deadline for all

Articles: Monday, 5:00 POSTMASTER: Send Address Box 3137, Portland, OR 97208.

Oregon

The Portland Observer welcom and photographs should be cl accompanied by a self addressed become the sole property of the publications or personal usage, v manager, unless the client has p 1993 THE PORTLAND OBS REPRODUCTION IN WHOLE O PROHIBITED.

Subscriptio

The Portland Observer--Oregon is a member of the National Newspaper Association -- Founded in 1885, and The National Advertising Representative Amalgamated Publishers, Inc., New York, NY. and The West Coast Black Publishers Association . Serving Portland and Vancouver

ind Observer	SUBSCRIBE The Portland Observer
PS 959-680) RICAN AMERICAN PUBLICATION 70 by Alfred L. Henderson Publisher RVER is located at r King, Jr. Bivd. jon 97211 ax 288-0015	The Portland Observer can be sent directly to your home for only $30.00 per year. Please fill out, enclose check or money order, and Mail to:
submitted materials: pm—Ads: Tuesday, noon Changes to: Portland Observer, P.O. Second class postage paid at Portland es freelance submissions. Manuscripts learly labeled and will be returned if dervelope. All created design display ads newspaper and can not be used in other without the written eonsent of the general burchased the composition of such ad. © ERVER. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED, DR IN PART WITHOUT PERMISSION IS	SUBSCRIPTIONS THE PORTLAND OBSERVER PO Box 3137 PORTLAND, OREGON 97208 Name
ns:$30.00 per year. 's Oldest African-American Publication	city, State