Dr Flowers Leads Summer League

By John Phillip

The McDonald's Far West Summer League for women reached the half way point this past week with Dr. Flowers with a one game lead over the rest of the pack.

Dr. Flowers started the week out with a 60-51 win over Tire Headquarter. Verna Guild, a 6'5" post player from Boise State University led the winner with 17 points and 11 rebounds. Kim Green of Benson High School, one of only three high school players in the league, scored 15 points for Tire Headquarters.

Guard Liz Brenden, from the university of Nebraska scored 18 points to lead Everlast sports Drink over Shilo Inns 61-49. Laurie Northrop paced Shilo Inns with 12 points.

Rena Aschoff's 19 Points led the way for Oregon Nail Distributors easy win over Bleachers Grill Pub, 68 to 48. Carol Rawlings was high for Bleachers, with 12 points.

Primo-Limo came away with a close 52-48 win over Ram Light Truck Salvage. Meagan Williams had 16 big points for Primo-Limo, while Cathy Clayton led Ram with 12 points.

President Of Oregon Business Council To Speak At City Club

Bill Wyatt, president of the Oregon Business Council, will speak at the City Club of Portland's Friday program on July 16 at 12:15pm in the Mayfair Room of the Benson Hotel, 309 SW Broadway, Portland.

Wyatt continues the City Club's Oregon at Risk series with a look at the Oregon Values and Beliefs Study. Conducted on behalf of the Oregon Business Council, the Oregon Values and Beliefs Study is a complex and revealing assessment of Oregonians' values. The study is based on two months of fact-to-face interviews with over 1,300 Oregonians in all 36 Oregon counties.

The Oregon Values and Beliefs Study asked Oregonians to rate a variety of options in four categories: personal values; personal activities; government services and community values. Wyatt will focus on what the study reveals about Oregonians' attitudes toward their educational system. According to this study, Oregonians are prepared to start making changes, locally and statewide, to Oregon's schools back to national prominence.

Bleacher Grill Pub came back with a good game and a win over Primo-Limo on Thursday night with a 70-69 win. Rawlings was high scorer with 28 points. Primo-Limo got 22 points from Williams.

Shilo Inns won at the Hord on a shot by Tina Lelas, the 6'5" post player from Oregon State. Angie Harris scores 23 points for Shilo Inns in the 48-47 win over Tire Headquarter. Krista Smith of the Portland Saints scored 18 points for T.H.I.

Oregon Nail Distributors won for the second time in the week with a 72-59 score over Ram Light Truck Salvage. Oregon State's Allegra Green scored 14 points and had 12 rebounds for Oregon Nail. Ram was led by Dominica McCord with 11 points.

In the last game of the week on Friday, Dr. Flowers also won for the second time in the week with a 64-50 win over Everlast Sports Drink. Again it was the 6'5" Guild that led the way with 12 points and 12 rebounds. Linda Riedman and Liz Brenden each scored 16 points for Everlast Sports Drink.

Ronald McDonald House Joins The Human Race

The Ronald McDonald House will participate with over 100 area non-profit agencies in The Human Race, a 4-county, 5K run/walk originating at The Bowl at Waterfront Park. Event day will include activities, food, and entertainment for all ages, with a portion of the net proceeds benefiting participating organizations such as the Ronald McDonald House.

Since its opening nine years ago, Portland's Ronald McDonald House has assisted nearly 4000 families in crisis by providing them with inexpensive lodging and privacy in a warm, friendly environment. It serves as a "home away from home" for families who have children being treated at nearby hospitals. The cost is only $10 a night, but no one is ever turned away for lack of funds.

Runners or walkers interested in participation in The Human Race are invited to join the Ronald McDonald House team. For an entry form or for further information, call the Portland Ronald McDonald House at 494-5200.

or non-federal organization who has implemented an outstanding energy efficiency or renewable resource technology measure since January 1, 1989.

Projects must have been operational for one year to allow for documentation of the projected energy savings or the program results. Applications for the awards program are available from state energy offices.

A state energy office may nominate one project in each of five categories: Building Technology, Industrial Technology, Transportation Technology, Utility Technology, and Energy Technology and Education. Nominated projects will be evaluated on the basis of the following criteria: Nominated projects will be evaluated on the basis of the following criteria: outstanding attributes, transferability, energy savings, economic impact, environmental impact and energy education and awareness benefit. State energy offices must submit nominations by September 30, 1993, to the Pennsylvania Energy Office.

"The projects selected to receive award recognition will represent a cross-section of outstanding energy initiatives being undertaken across the country," San Martin said. "There's a tremendous potential for savings when these programs are replicated."

San Martin said that those who have implemented a program or taken action to: increase energy awareness, improve energy efficiency, promote the use of alternative fuels, or encourage the development of renewable energy sources or technologies which use existing resources more effectively, are strongly encouraged to participate in the program. A special awards ceremony will be held in Washington, DC, in April 1994.

Additional information can be obtained by contacting the program coordinators: Pennsylvania Energy Office -- Rosemary Mape at 717/783-9981 or the National Association of State Energy Officials -- Frank Bishop at 202/546-2200.

Cruising To The Senior Prom

Senior citizens are invited to cruise into this year's Senior Prom on Sunday, August 8 from 5:00 to 7:30 pm. Pioneer Courthouse Square will be the site for the seventh annual Senior Prom, offering music, dancing, food and fun. This year's prom, featuring a cruise ship theme, will set sail as the largest free social event for seniors in the state of Oregon.

Our seniors will be stepping out to the music of the '40's performed by the 18-piece Woody Hite Big Band with vocalist Rebecca Kilgore. The Master of Ceremonies will be Gene Brendler, a KPTV retiree after 39 years of service. The 1993 Prom King and Queen will be chosen by a drawing from those in attendance.

Complimentary souvenir photos for prom-goers will be provided by the Prom's sponsor, Secure Horizons, a senior program of PacificCare of Oregon. The first 100 Secure Horizons members will also receive fresh flower leis. Door prizes will be given away throughout the evening.

The Senior Prom is produced by Pioneer Courthouse Square and the Portland Parks Bureau's Senior Leisure Services. SpringRidge at Charbonneau will be hosting a refreshment tent featuring complimentary snacks and beverages. The Woody Hite Big Band is sponsored, in part, by the Music Performance Trust Funds, AFM, Local 99.
