quickly because you will wind-up with cracks. You lose-out when you have to go back over what has already been done and you have to tear-down and start over. You lose people. You lose souls.

My Lord!

God is saying "All right Portland. The ball is in your court. I've heard your prayers and I have sent you qualified foremen who are equipped with knowledge, guts and steadfastness. I will not put on you more than you can stand. If you love me, feed my sheep. If you really know who I am, go tell somebody. And--if you which are called by my name, shall humble yourselves and pray, and seek my face, and turn from your wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven and will forgive your sins, and will heal our land. But--if ye turn away, and forsake my statues and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; then will I pluck you up by the roots out of my land which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast you out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all nations." [II Chronicles 7:14, 19-200

The job is a rather simple one. But--one or two committed workers just won't do.

Just all that you can be in God's Army!

Suit up! Push up your sleeves! Get dirty! Dare to be different and don't be afraid! God is forever near! Hallelujah!

God needs workmen who are worthy of their hire! He wants dedicated, honest, hardworking praying laborers. Dedicated...because, no matter what the test, they will stand their ground until God says it's enough.

Yes. Construction is under way. New foremen are on the job. And the Master Builder is Jehovah-Jireh himself. Full-time ministries will require full-time dedication, commitment and payer.

With each day that passes, I hear about more ministries and bow they are impacting the lives of so many persons who have never heard about the Lord before. This is good. But--Christians! Don't get weary. Don't give up until your work is done.

Let's not be in the business of tearing down--but--building up. Just remember--God is God all by himself. If He wants to shut heaven and not send any rain, He will. If He wants to send pestilence or earthquake or flood or tornadoes or hurricanes among the people, He will. He Really Will!

If we choose to disregard what God has commanded us to do; and--if we forget our prayers for God's help in our time of sorrow and distress, we be unto us.

Who will, then plead for us as Abraham pleaded for the citizens of Sodom and Gomorrah?

Let's not be bandaid Christians who use God at the time of an injury and then when the wound is healed--we quickly throw Him away until the next ordeal.

Praise be to God Almighty for His abiding love and mercy.

"Thus saith the Lord, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that you build unto me?

and where is the place of my rest?"

--Isaiah 66:1
