Guess' It From The Heart

BY TONY WASHINGTON
AFTER 7 YEARS OF DEVOTION, CONFIDENCE AND DESIRE, GUESS HAS SERIOUSLY ARRIVED AND BELIEVE ME "IT'S ALL GOOD."

Vocalists Ronnie Irons & Darryl Gardine both natives of St. Louis, Missouri have done everything from working temporary jobs and just gigin around the Detroit area for two years. They finally got their (just do's). Supported by local promoters Sonny Metcalf and Frank Spares who were not guessing on Ronnie and Darryl, they must of knew there was something special in store for them. Guess' Ronnie/Darryl are in their early 20's and with their background vocalists Carlos Closson & Darryl Smith send ladies to the 7th heaven with their style of music, that's right, easy listening music is their M.O. Romance means a lot to them, they feel ladies should be treated with respect and I guess most women feel that after listening to their music.

Warner Brothers Records got a hold of them in care of Michael J. Powell who is also behind such artists as Anita Baker, Pattie LaBelle, and The Winans just to name a few.

Guess' album also needs to acknowledge production credit from Paul D. Allen and Kinchelov, with Leonard Richardson. Also Calas Hatter and Alfonso Everett sharing as executive producers. Ronnie comes from a family of 3 brothers and 1 sister. Ronnie likes sports and attributes his success to his mom, dad, Dorothy and Lee Perryman. Ronnie says "by staying focused you can be successful," he also said "you can come up rough but also be a gentleman."

Darryl has 5 brothers and 2 sisters he also thanks his parents, Thaddeus & Settie Gardine for his success. Darryl also goes on to add that his plans are to produce other artists and give something back to his community. After all, they haven't done anything at home in 3 years. Soft tones, rememberable lyrics are what I'm talking about.

Ronnie and Darryl go on to add "Be determined to stand among adversity because friends (so called) will try to bring you down, I personally don't think they are down with that. So I guess you have to take a chance and be a judge for yourself."

With cuts such as: "Shu-B" which is there hit single along with other tracks "My Reason" just to name a few. Guess has come to stay in the music scene.
