

The year: 1933. The music: Strictly Ellington. Unforgettable songs like Sophisticated Lady, a smoky, jazzy song that spoke of Duke Ellington's musical roots in the hot Harlem nightclubs of the day.

Now, in tribute to the 60th anniversary of this memorable song, the Duke Ellington Orchestra presents its first-ever collector doll. Beautifully sculptured in fine hand-painted bisque porcelain. Dressed in shimmering satin and midnight-black dotted tulle. Holding a magnificent ostrich feather fan. And on her head, a stunning headpiece embellished with ostrich plumes.

This exceptional doll is an exclusive offering in Franklin Heirloom Dolls' prestigious Gold Standard Series, the collector's criterion for design, quality, and craftsmanship. Just $195, payable in convenient monthly installments.
