

music and memory of jazz saxophonist and innovator, John Coltrane, as well as the history of African-American music in Philadelphia.

RESTAURANTS

•The Caribbean Cafe
1811 N. 54th Street
215 473-0347

•Charley's Open Pit
5917 N. Broad Street
215 549-7550

•Cornucopia
4942 Parkside Avenue
215 877-4426

•Delilah's Reading Terminal Market
12th & Arch Streets
215 574-0929

•Dwight's Southern Barbecue
3734 Germantown Avenue
215 225-6030

•Ferrell's Franks
Gallery II, Market East
10th & Market Streets
215 238-9963

Afro-American Historical and Cultural Museum

•Lakey's
8215 Stenton Avenue
215 247-5354

•Moody's On The Pike
Haines St. & Limekiln Pike
215 927-5055

•The Red Sea
229 S. 45th Street
215 387-2424

•The Rib Crib
6333 Germantown Avenue
215 438-6793

•Ron's Ribs
1627 South Street
215 545-9160

ENTERTAINMENT/ NIGHTLIFE

•Atibas African Room
52nd & Walnut Streets
215 726-5826/472-8724

•Borgia Cafe
406 S. 2nd Street
215 222-4250

•Impulse
3736 Germantown Avenue
215 226-6888

•Morgan's
17 East Price Street
215 848-2640

•The Red Snapper
46th & Lancaster Avenue

•Third World Lounge
49th & Baltimore Avenue
215 476-1515

•Top Shelf
56th & Market Streets
215 748-4245

•Zanzibar Blue
301-305 S. 11th Street
215 829-0300

SHOPPING

•Chosen Image Black Art Gallery
6521 N. Broad Street
215 276-3200

•Heritage Gallery
51 North 3rd Street
215 923-7713

•The Lucien Crump Art Gallery
6380 Germantown Avenue
215 843-8788

•Afro-American Historical and Cultural Museum Bookstore
7th & Arch Streets
215 574-3139

•Hakim's Books
210 S. 52nd Street
215 474-9495

•Bintamani
603 S. 47th Street

•Naana Kitoe
511 S. 4th Street
215 627-9251

•Silk Tent
4308 Pine Street
215 386-1915

•Stiltwalker
802 South Street
215 925-1667

SUMMER '94 FEATURES NEW DISNEY SHOWS, PARADES, HOTELS

Lake Buena Vista, Fla.

Disney-MGM Studios plunges into Summer '94 with the chill-thrilling Twilight Zone Tower of Terror heading a host of all-new Walt Disney World attractions, musical shows and parades, plus grand opening of the awe-inspiring 728-room Wilderness Lodge.

Epcot '94 transforms Future World into a true World's Fair with innovation and excitement, Mickey Mania creates a madcap new parade for the Magic Kingdom and Epcot's Splashtacular musical fountain fills the sky.

New for Summer '94 is the Terror Zone Tower of Terror—daring guests ascend a shadowy lift-shaft past ghostly corridors in Hollywood Tower Hotel until lightning strikes; their lift-vehicle plummets 13 floors—faster than free-fall—in a breathtaking Twilight Zone thrill of a lifetime.

The Walt Disney Company

MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA

Montgomery's Black Heritage is America's Heritage. Museums, churches, schools, and historic sites all over this city attest to the important contributions of African-Americans.

Here in Montgomery famous African-Americans, such as W.C. Handy, Booker T. Washington, George Washington Carver, Jesse Owens, Marva Collins, General Daniel "Chappie" James, Rosa Parks, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and countless others lived, worked and dreamed. It was here that the Civil Rights Movement was born and grew to change the shape of world history.

HISTORIC FACTS OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS MOVE- MENTS

•October 31, 1954
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. installed as the 20th minister of Montgomery's Dexter Avenue Baptist Church

•December 1, 1955
Rosa Parks arrested for refusing to give up her seat to a white man on a Montgomery bus

•December 5th
Montgomery Bus Boycott begins

•November 13, 1956
The Supreme Court bans segregated seating on Montgomery buses

•August 29, 1957
Congress passes the first Civil Rights Act since Reconstruction

•December 5, 1959
United States Supreme Court outlaws segregation in bus terminals
continued on page 12

WHERE EVEN THE SHADOWS PLAY MUSIC.

Where European horns met African drums, and American music was born. Call 1-800-429-2008 for a free guide to New Orleans, or NEW ORLEANS write Post Office Box 61023, New Orleans, LA 70161-1023. Come Join The Parade