• Hudson's Bay High School Board on East side of school, along

Reserve Street.

• Clark Public Utilities Park in lot and board along Fort Vancouver Way.

South Shuttle

Arrives and departs from the #14 boarding location at 7th Street Transit Center.

• Fort Vancouver/SR 14 Park & Ride
• Old Apple Tree Park Across from Who Song & Larry's on E. Columbia Way.
• Vancouver Landing at Terminal One At the west end of the Red Lion Inn of the Quay. Entrance off Columbia Street.

This inaugural event brings to our community the best in entertainment and family activities. We have developed a festival that will have a short as well as long term impact on our community and allows Vancouver to take its rightful place in the regional economy. The Vancouver Festival - "Where Summer Begins" is a 3-day outdoor extravaganza boast-

Opening Night Gala with The Temptations and Mary Wilson Of The Supremes Main Stage

4:30 p.m. - Midnight
We're kicking off the Vancouver Festival in a big way with an outdoor party unsurpassed in the history of Vancouver and Clark County. This is a full evening of outstanding talent that you'll never forget! Come early to enjoy street performances featuring live music, dance and juggling - all prior to the main show. You'll need a ticket to attend. Tickets are limited - get yours now!

Advance general admission tickets are $15. Day of the event gate admission is $18. Purchase tickets at Columbia Arts Center, 400 W. Evergreen Blvd., Paradise Cafe at 13th and Main Streets, and all Fred Meyer FASTIXX locations. FASTIXX accepts credit card orders by calling 503/224-TIXX. (FASTIXX purchases are subject to a handling fee.)

The opening gala is an open-air festival. Sidewalk seating is available for dining, conversation and people-watching. There will be plenty of room to dance, and once the show starts, you'll want to do just that!

Starting at 5:30 p.m. a pre-gala dinner will take place at the First Interstate Tower. Patrons have their choice of a 4-course dinner of chilled poached filet of salmon or garlic-roasted tenderloin of beef, beer and wine beverage, and, of course, a ticket to the show with reserved seating. Cost is $55 per person. Call the Downtown Vancouver Association 693-2847 for reservations.
