Miracles Happen In Disney's "Angeles In The Outfield"

Danny Glover stars as a baseball manager who learns to trust the unseen when his last place team miraculously rallies to first place. Milton Davis Jr. (from left) and Joseph Gordon-Levitt star as players with faith.

A remarkable story of wonder and excitement unfolds when a foster child named Roger (Joseph Gordon-Levitt) is told with grim humor that there's about as much of a chance for his family getting back together as there is for the last-place Angeles baseball team to win the pennant. But miracles happen! And when 11-year-old Roger prays to the umpire in the sky for divine intervention, a band of real angels, including one named Al (Christopher Lloyd) answers the call. Although nobody except Roger can see or hear these heaven-sent guardians, it's not long before hot-tempered team manager and major-leader skeptic George Knox (Danny Glover) sees the extraordinary evidence of something magical helping his team out of the basement and into the playoffs.

With the angels' presence being felt on and off the field, the players and young Roger discover the power of believing in dreams and find the courage to never give up home. And though the angels can't be seen... they're always around and...watching. Tony Danza, Brenda Fricker, Ben Johnson and Jay O. Sanders also star.

Walk Disney Pictures in association with Caravan Pictures presents "Angeles in the Outfield" for release at area theaters this summer.

George Benson

Swings into Portland in breezy form. Sokol Blosser winery kicked off the first of 5 concert series, in what has to be the area's finest outdoor pavilion. One that is embraced by rolling hillsides of many grape varieties thus the ambiance of sweet delight.

Mr. Benson warmed the crowd with extensive showmanship. This was topped with his rendition of the late great Nat King Cole's Unforgettable. To the crowds delight he even did improvisations of Natolie Cole's voice and yes even pulled it off.

With the crowd having been fully satisfied he kicked off a second set even more exhilarating than the first. You could really feel his love for the audience as well as his craft.

If you missed this great performance then be duly served, don't miss the remaining portion of the Sokol Blosser series. George Benson truly set the pace for others like Al Jarreau, the Neville Brothers to follow!

In addition to the familiar red, radishes come in white, yellow, pink, purple, black and a combination of red and white.
