Ray Liotta and Whoopi Goldberg in New Line Cinema's "Corrina, Corrina"

The Scoop

BY JANICE MALONE

Get Ready for Kelly: Look for the hot n' heavy R. Kelly to be headlining his own tour, which should start late next month or in early September. Kelly recently completed the new video for "Summer Bunnies" last week. The vid/flix was shot in Chi-town and Kelly's protegee Aaliyah is said to also make an appearance in the video. Look for it on your favorite video channel soon. And look for a major interview with Mr. Kelly right here in The Scoop very soon. By the way, R. Kelly's album "12 Play" has now reached the triple platinum status. His "Bump N' Grind" single became the longest-running No. 1 single (13 weeks), or, Billboard's R&B singles chart since 1958, surpassing Whitney Houston's record for "I Will Always Love You." With stats like that, R. Kelly has definitely become the new king of R&B music!

Hewitt Can't Do It: That is, fill up those large concert halls like he used to. One of our Scooper sources report that Howard Hewitt was performing in Atlanta recently at a rather small and modest night club. He's also made some recent appearances singing on The Trinity Broadcasting Network!

What's Old Is News: Guess who's in the recording studio? It's Confunkshun and The Stylistics! Both groups are working hard on new albums with hit making producer Felton Pilot, who's commanded for such luminaries as Hammer and Quincy Jones. And to further speak of new projects, Dreamgirls star Jennifer Holliday is now with the Atlanta-based music company Intersound. The company is also the new home for the Mighty Clouds of Joy, Edwin Hawkins, Vickie Winans and others.
