Loving Children Up For Adoption

Meet a five-year-old boy who is full of love to share with a new parent. Little Randy is one of thousands of children nationwide currently awaiting adoption.

Randy is personable and affectionate. He smiles and giggles so readily that he just draws people to him. He gets along well with other children as well as with adults. His caseworker says of Randy, "He has one of the happiest dispositions of any kid I know."

Playing with toy cars, building with Legos, riding his bicycle and climbing on playground equipment keep Randy busy. He has a normal activity level, and is very inquisitive. Randy attends a special program for speech therapy and has made great improvements. Other than his speech delay, Randy is developmentally on target in all areas. He enjoys school and plays appropriately with the children in his foster mother's day care program.

Those who know Randy view him as a physically and emotionally healthy child "just waiting to bond" with a new family. Could that lucky family be yours?

favorite activities include drawing and coloring.

Two-year-old LaNeisha can be bashful, but warms up to people given time. She can be quite affectionate with other children and will hug her sister. Playing, coloring, swinging, and banging things together to make noise are LaNeisha's favorite activities. While she will play with other children, she often prefers to sit alone and just "people watch".

These girls need parents who can provide a structured and loving environment.

Oregon adoption agencies waive or reduce fees for families applying to adopt older children and sibling groups such as Tyeisha and LaNeisha. Tyeisha and LaNeisha

An adorable duo, Tyeisha and LaNeisha are sisters waiting for a family to call their own. They are two of approximately 180 Oregon children currently awaiting adoptive parents.

Expressive big brown eyes and a happy smile characterize three-year-old Tyeisha. She is healthy and enjoys active play such as chase and hide-and-seek. Generally cheery, Tyeisha interacts well with other children and can play appropriately and share with other children. Tyeisha's

He is truly a gift to Loaves & Fishes, and it is an honor to recognize him at the Fifth Annual Volunteer Celebration. This special event allows us to thank him for all of the wonderful work he has done. The day would not be complete without him.
