Wedding Announcement

Psychiatrist Dr. Cheryl H. Cottrol Marries Civil Engineer Paul Augustus Brown

Dr. Cheryl Henrietta Cottrol, a practicing psychiatrist and an assistant professor at Yale University School of Medicine, was married recently to Paul Augustus Brown, a civil engineer and machine designer with a New Jersey firm. The couple spent their honeymoon in South Africa.

The ceremony was held at St. Mark's United Methodist Church at 137th Street and St. Nicholas Avenue in Harlem and was performed by the Reverend Dr. Gilbert Caldwell.

When it was suggested to Dr. Cottrol that she hold her wedding in a stately downtown cathedral, or the reception in a glittering venue like Tavern on the Green, she insisted that both wedding and reception be held at St. Mark's, the church she had attended since being carried there in her mother's arm.

Mr. Brown is a graduate of Paddington Technical College and Wildensden College of Technology, both in London. Dr. Cottrol graduated from Yale University and received her medical degree from the State University's Upstate Medical center in Syracuse.

Dr. Cottrol is the daughter of

Newlyweds Psychiatrist Dr. Cheryl H. Cottrol and Civil Engineer Paul Augustus Brown

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Cottrol of New York. Her father is a nationally published photojournalist who has been the editor of several publications, including the Amsterdam News. Her mother, Jewel Gassaway Cottrol, recently retired as an administrative assistant at the Board of Global Ministries of the United Methodist Church in New York.

Mr. Brown is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Brown.

Conferences Aim To Stimulate Peace And Unity

For Oregon Children And Families

Bridging the Gap Between Despair and Hope for Children and Families is the theme of two related conferences, scheduled for October 14 through 17, 1994, in Portland. Both conferences are focused on stimulating action benefitting children and families in the community. Both also are aimed at drawing from the strengths of the religious community in this call to service.

The first conference is entitled What Congregations CAN DO For Children and is scheduled for October 14 and 15 at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral and Congregation Beth Israel. Friday afternoon is targeted for clergy and congregation professionals. Saturday is a full day program starting with a keynote address by former Governor Neil Goldschmidt. This conference is sponsored by Congregations for Children, a partnership joining the Campbell Institute, Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon and the Albina Ministerial Alliance.

The program features guest speakers from Dallas, Texas; Canada; Seattle, Washington, and from our own community who have exercised remarkable leadership in mobilizing congregations into action for children.

SOLV Celebrates 25th Anniversary On NIKE World Campus

Stop Oregon Litter and Vandalism (SOLV), Oregon's premier non-profit organization established to address issues of livability in the state, will celebrate its 25th anniversary at a gala event on the NIKE World Campus in Beaverton on Saturday, October 8. The theme, "Keeping Oregon Shipshape for 25 years," will be carried out with a sumptuous seafood buffet served lakeside.

Some of Oregon's top musicians, Ron Steen and Friends featuring Shirley Nanette, will be on hand to play dance music. A raffle will feature weekends at Salishan Inn and the Seaside Oceanfront Shilo Inn, a cruise on the Spirit of Portland, NIKE products and more. A package of a full page four-color ad in the 1995 PING-Cellular One LPGA Golf Championship souvenir program and 20 individual season tickets with clubhouse privileges has also been donated, courtesy of Tournament Golf Foundation, Inc.

SOLV Executive Director Jack McGowan said "SOLV is honored to be the beneficiary of NIKE's community spirit in numerous projects that benefit Oregon. This event will provide a good way for people to both support SOLV and see the exciting NIKE World Campus."

The presentation of the first annual Tom McCall Citizenship Award sponsored by Bank of America will also be made during the evening. The late Governor McCall's wife, Audrey, will be on hand to help make the presentation.

Tickets are $80.00 each and reservations are requested by October 1. Table of ten are available. Ticket price includes raffle ticket, beverage script and one-year membership in Friends of SOLV. For additional information, call SOLV at 647-9855.
