Jeff Walks As Wilson Wins

Wilson clinched at least a share of the P.L.L. Championship in a bizarre manner Friday when Jefferson (who was down 33-0) coach Mark Pinder pulled his team from the field with six minutes remaining in the fourth quarter.

Pinder accused Wilson with playing with illegal cleats which is an infringement of the equipment rules.

Game officials checked some Wilson players early in the game and found no irregularities.

However with six minutes left in the game referee Jeff Kersten discovered running back William Holloway cleats exceeded the maximum length.

While Holloway was leaving the field to change cleats Pinder protested. "I said I'll administer the penalty" Kersten said "He then said I'm pulling the team," said coach Pinder.

P.S.U. Handles Idaho St

P.S.U. Viking defense accounted for two critical turnover recoveries to lead P.S.U. pass Idaho State 38-21.

Cornerback John Gentry returned a fumble 75 yards for a touch down and end Rick Andersen intercepted a pass to set another score.

VOLLEYBALL

In one of toughest years to date P.S.U. Women Volley suffered two stunning losses Saturday.

12th ranked P.S.U. (20-12) lost to Bakersfield (33-2) 15-7, 15-10, 15-9 and NAIA Puget Sound (28-7) defeated P.S.U. earlier in the day 15-9, 15-11, 2-15, 16-14.

BASKETBALL

LINCOLN BLANKS WILSON

BY DAN BELL

Under intermittent rainy skies the girls Lincoln Soccer Team battled a tenacious Wilson to see who would advance to the next game of the P.L.L. playoffs.

Although it was Wilson who dominated the field position in the first period. It was Lincoln that took control in the latter part of the game and pulled out a 2-0 victory.

It was not as if Wilson didn't have ample opportunity to score they actually took more shots at the goal in the first period 5 shots to 4 for Lincoln.

It seemed as if their timing and field position were their undoing.

After 49 minutes of play Kate Morland of Lincoln scored on an assist from Haley Miller.

The second goal was a result of swarming team offense resulting from a freekick from Kate Morland, headed by Stephanie Kafoury and Halley Miller put it in.

Asked what was the pivotal point in the game coach Jody Lim commented "We got our offense in sync". At half time I told them that they were making good decisions. Continue to do that and challenge for the ball. The difference between this game and our meeting last week (a game Lincoln lost) was the offense. Last week we didn't have the offense.

The key to tonight's game was the execution of our transition from defense to offense.

Earlier this year our transition game had been hurting us.

Wilson played a great game were even tougher in this game than last week.

Losing coach Michele Potestio said that "It was a great game and both teams played incredible. I just told my kids that they have nothing to be ashamed of and just not to hang their heads.

U OF O SQUEAKS BY ARIZONA

BY DAN BELL

Three times this year you could call University of Oregon football team giant killers. first they defeated 17th ranked U.S.C. with a second string quarterback. Then upsetting a highly respected and arch-rival number 9 ranked University of Washington. Now Saturday beating the six point favorite and 11th nationally ranked Arizona.

For the first time since 1957 Eugeneans and Duck alumnus are entertaining visions of going to the Rose Bowl in Pasadena California.

Defense was the key axiom of the game and led by the Gang Green, Oregon managed to hold Arizona's fragile offense to just 9 points. Bouncing back in the second half to overcome Arizona's 9 point lead to persevere by one in an 10-9 victory.

The Ducks (6-3) overall, 4-1 Pac 10) moved into a four way tie to lead the Pac 10 with Arizona, Washington State and USC. Each team has three games left in the regular season.

Going into the second half blanked 9 to zip Coan Brooks said I told them at half time that "somebody had to step up and make a play, just one play to get back into it. I told em we had 30 minutes to over all the bad breaks we got in the first half. I told them we if we got the lead it would be our game and by God, they followed the script.

They did it on Matt Balden's 25 yard field goal and quarterback Danny O'Neils on target 15 yard touchdown pass to tightend Josh Wilcox with 12:17 left in the fourth quarter.

Obviously a defensive battle Oregon more than met the challenge and held Arizona to two first downs and 39 net yds in the second half.

Arizona benefitted from two huge gifts from the officials in the first half. The officials waved away quarterback Dan Whites fumble at his 10 yard line (recovered by U of O tackle Bryant Jackson) and ruled that Herman O'Berry's end zone interception with four second left in the half didn't count, resulting in a third Arizona field goal.

Arizona built its 9-0 first half lead on the strength of three field goals by Steve McLaughlin of 47, 29, and 26 yards.

Arizona's standout tailback Ontiwan Carter who's rated as the nations number 8 rusher was held to just 79 yards on 26 carries.

Arizona netted 56 yards rushing on 36 attempts and White who was effective early on, completed 5 of 15 passes for 31 yards in the second half.

Oregon's touchdown was set-up when the Ducks got a critical pass interference call on fourth and 7 from the Wildcats 27 after Arizona cornerback Mike Scurlock tangled with Oregon receiver Pat Johnson.

Two plays later on-third and 9 from the Arizona 15, U Of O scored on a play that isolated Wilcox with Arizona linebacker Thomas Demps, who was few steps behind when Wilcox caught a picture perfect over the shoulder pass in the right corner of the end.

Danny O'Neil said it was a gutsy call. Asked if he had any doubts about the comeback. "Nah this is a new team "O'Neil said we got Gang Green on defense and a bunch of guys on offense who want to win more than anything in the world."
