

As We Remember The Man, Let Us Remember His Message.

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., 1929-1968

“If humanity is to progress, Gandhi is inescapable. He lived, thought, and acted, inspired by the vision of humanity evolving toward a world of peace and harmony. We may ignore him at our own risk.”

- Martin Luther King Jr.

KGW-TV, Portland Oregon salutes the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

“We will not only win freedom for ourselves, we will so appeal to your heart and conscience that we will win you in the process, and our victory will be a double victory.”

- Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

“Now let me say that the next thing we must be concerned about if we are to have peace on earth and good will toward men is the nonviolent affirmation of the sacredness of all human life. Every man is somebody because he is a child of God.”

- Martin Luther King Jr.

After losing his job in the timber industry, a $15,000 Lottery-funded small business development loan helped Larry Miller become his own boss. With his wife, Lori, they operate Little Foot Construction which provides maintenance work in the forests in and around Willowa County.

A Lottery-funded loan helped Tasty Bake of Baker City move from California to Oregon and expand its pizza crust manufacturing operation. They expanded their work force from 21 to 43 employees.

Some of our BIGGEST WINNERS didn't even play

Thanks to the efforts of rancher Phil St. Clair, Lottery dollars and many volunteers, the plant life and native red band rainbow trout are returning to the south fork of the John Day River which had been damaged by years of mismanagement.

Thanks to a loan and grant of Lottery dollars to Island City, Bowman Trucking of La Grande was able to build a new, desperately needed, building and hire five new employees.

It Does Good Things.

Over $708 million has been earned to strengthen Oregon's economy.

Wish to solute Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.
