Sweet Honey In The Rock Coming Feb 4th

Portland favorite, the much-admired singing group Sweet Honey In The Rock will appear at Schnitzer Hall Saturday FEB 4th for an 8pm concert blending blues, folk, gospel, and traditional African music. Tickets are on sale now. The Grammy Award-winning sextet has played to sold out audiences worldwide. These are women who sing fiercely of being fighters, tenderly of being in love, and knowingly of being women. Now celebrating their 21th year, they have earned a large and enthusiastic Portland audience by time and again giving riveting performances. They are one of those all too few acts who don't rely on anything for help except their own exhilarating, inspiring voices and their stunning presence on stage. Reserved seat tickets available at Fred Meyer FASTIXX locations, the PCPA boxoffice or by phone at 224-8499 or from outside of Portland (800) 992-8499. Ticket prices range from $18.50 to a startlingly low $10 to allow everyone a chance to see this wonderful group (plus City fee and seller commission). This concert will be sign interpreted for the hearing-impaired by Shirley Childress Johnson.

Soul, jazz, rock and blues singer Dionne Farris will perform in concert Sunday at the LaLuna Balcony in Portland as part of her first major North American Tour. Farris' debut album is Wild See, Wild Flower, recorded after coming to prominence with her vocals on Arrested Development's Grammy-winning single "Tennessee."
