

PSU Foundation Board Gains New Members

Robert Szniewajs; PSU Foundation Board

Six Portland-area civic and business leaders have recently been named to the Portland State University Foundation Board of Directors.

The 33-member Foundation Board oversees activities of the PSU Foundation, which helps direct funds raised by PSU to support a wide range of activities such as scholarships, faculty development, research and education equipment, special holding company headquartered in the Northwest. At U.S. Bancorp since April 1994, he oversees mortgage banking, cred-it card operations, credit report-ing, financial management, hu-man resources and community/government affairs. Szniewajs is former chairman of Bank Amer-ica, N.A., the credit card bank for Bank of America.

Veterans Post by Freddy Groves

Last week, I received a letter from a veteran in Nebraska asking what the Department of Veterans Affairs has been doing about the use of military personnel in radiation re-search. In looking for information, I found a release from the VA dated, ironically, December 7, 1994, the anniversary of the attack on Pearl Har-bor in 1941, which gave an update on this subject.

According to VA Secretary Jesse Brown, the VA's Inspector General has joined the search for records on radioisotope nuclear medicine or radiation research that may have in-volved human subjects. Brown noted that, "Early in the search, we learned about the possible existence of a 'confidential' Atomic Medicine Division decades ago, but very little information has, so far, been un-covered." Brown has asked the In-spector General to use his office's audit expertise to help identify sources of documentation that can lead to more important information.

Painewebber Starts Albina School Fund

A new scholarship fund has been developed at the Albina Youth Opportunity School with the help of PaineWebber and Maurice Valdivieso, the Portland vice-presi-dent of the stock and bond broker company.

The school at 3710 N. Mississippi is Portland's oldest alternative school, in continuous operation since 1967 and serving 3,500 youth. Students come from all over the city and reflect a rich diversity of ethnic and cultural backgrounds.

Students are provided an indi-vidualized curriculum and dedicated staff to find solutions to attendance, academic and other issues. Achieve-ment is ensured by a nearly tutorial staff/student ratio.

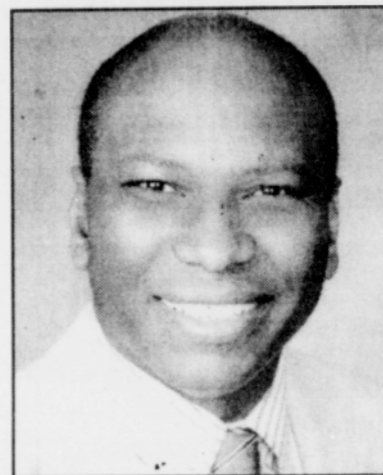

Donations to help build the fund are encouraged by making checks payable to the Albina Youth Opportunity School (AYOS) Benefit Schol-arship Fund (account number FR 36464-17) in care of Maurice Valdivieso at Painewebber, Inc., P.O. Box 40225, Portland, OR 97240-9859.

Weston Pontiac Sales Promotion To Help Urban League Of Portland

Weston Pontiac Buick GMC will donate $50 to the Urban League of Portland to any Urban League mem-ber who mentions the league when they purchase a car.

Clarence Larkins, a salesman at the dealership at 22555 S.E. Stark St. in Gresham, said he wants to give something back to the league in its 50th Anniversary year.

To take part in the program, just drop by and ask for Larkins. If he is out, another salesperson can help you. Mention your Urban League membership after your purchase and a $50 check will be sent to the league. The offer is good now until Dec.

Clarence Larkins

31. Weston is the No. 1 dealership in GMC truck sales in the region and has the largest service department in the Northwest - rated No. 1 in cus-tomer service satisfaction. Weston offers more than seven acres of new and used cars and trucks.

The Urban League has ex-tended its thanks for this gener-ous program to Larkins and to Weston Pontiac, an Urban League business member. It's a great way to wish the league a happy anni-versary.

For more information, contact Larkins at 665-2166 or 255-3840.
