

Good In the Hood, Another Success

Good In The Hood is a two day Multicultural Music and Food Festival, held on the grounds of the Holy Redeemer Area Campus at 127 North Portland Blvd.

This years Multicultural Festival was held from 6-10pm July 7th and from noon-10pm July 8th.

There was music, dancing, food, arts & crafts, events for children from every culture, from African to Irish.

Good In The Hood was put together by the Neighborhood Outreach Association. The goal is, plans to promote the many positive aspects of North and Northeast Portland living.

The proceeds for this event provide educational scholarships to needy families and contribute to the neighborhood groups working to bring about positive changes in North and Northeast Portland.

The 1995 Good In The Hood was great success and the association will hope for and even larger success for 1996.

Some local merchants display African clothing, arts and crafts.

BANKING ON AMERICA®

Get a line of credit for your business.
Plus a checking account with no monthly fees until 1996.

We think it's time someone made a big deal about small business. That's why Bank of America is introducing a new line of credit. Now, small businesses will have exactly what they need.

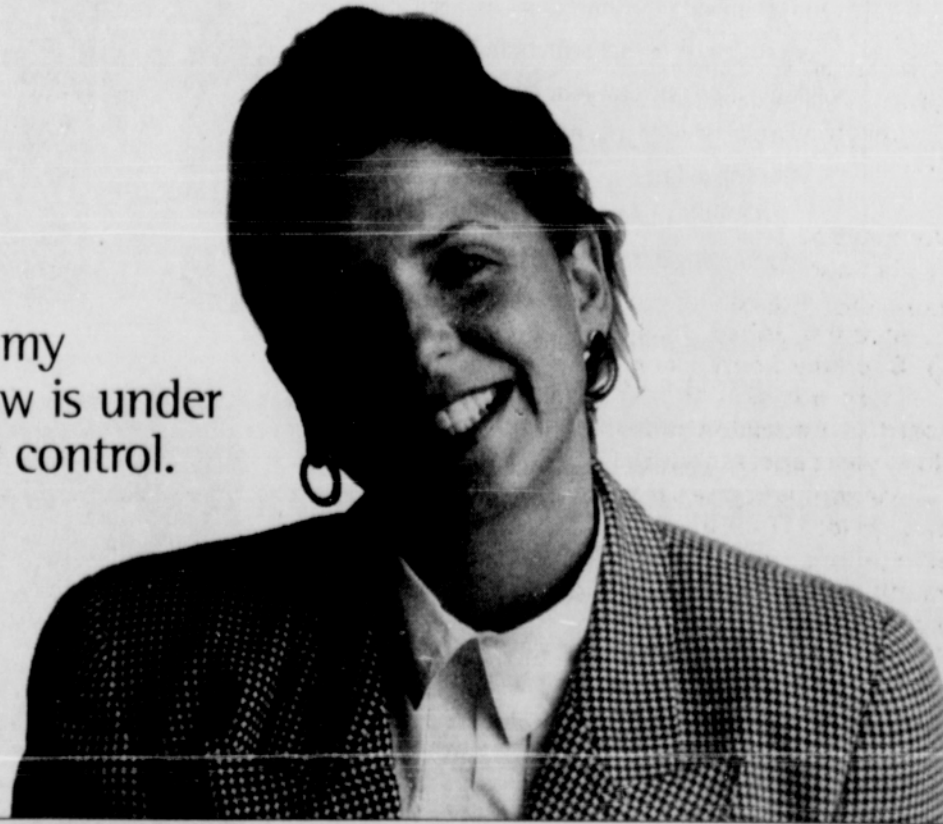

It's called the Advantage Business Credit™ Express Line. A $10,000 overdraft line of credit that lets you tap in anytime for payroll, expenses or that laptop you've always wanted. And second, there's a business checking account with no monthly service fees until 1996. There are also extra discounts that make it easier for you to switch, such as $50 off your first check order.

Every branch manager is there to help and act as your business banker. Or you can call our business banking customer service 24 hours a day to help with any questions you may have.

This is a limited time offer, so stop by any BofA branch today or call 1-800-USE-BofA for more information. This new credit line could do wonders for your bottom line.

Now my cash flow is under my control.

Mike from legal has this important message: "This offer ends 7/31/95 and is not valid with any other offer. Advantage Business Credit™ Express Line available up to $10,000 and requires automatic payment from a BofA business checking account. Offer applies to non-analyzed business checking accounts and only waives the monthly service fee. Subject to standard opening procedures and rules of account. See branch for details." ©1995 Bank of America Oregon, Member FDIC.
