

Sale, Barbecue Supports Senior Center Programs

A rummage sale and family barbecue was celebrated Saturday at the North and Northeast Multicultural Senior Center.

Center Director Windy Sandell and Activities Coordinator Rachel Belcher organized the event to raise donations for the center's nutrition programs and senior activities.

The Urban League of Portland, Multnomah County Senior Services Division and Loaves and Fishes sponsored the event.

Sandell said about $1,800 was raised.

Part of the donations will help support the meals on wheels program for home bound elderly, Sandell said.

She said other proceeds will help support the on-site dining programs and senior activities such as health checks, birthday parties and field trips.

The goal of the senior center is to enrich the lives of area residents over 60 years old.

Saturday's festivities drew many area residents. A chicken and ribs lunch was served.

Sandell said donations and volunteers are still needed at the center, located on the corner of Northeast Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. and Killingsworth Street.

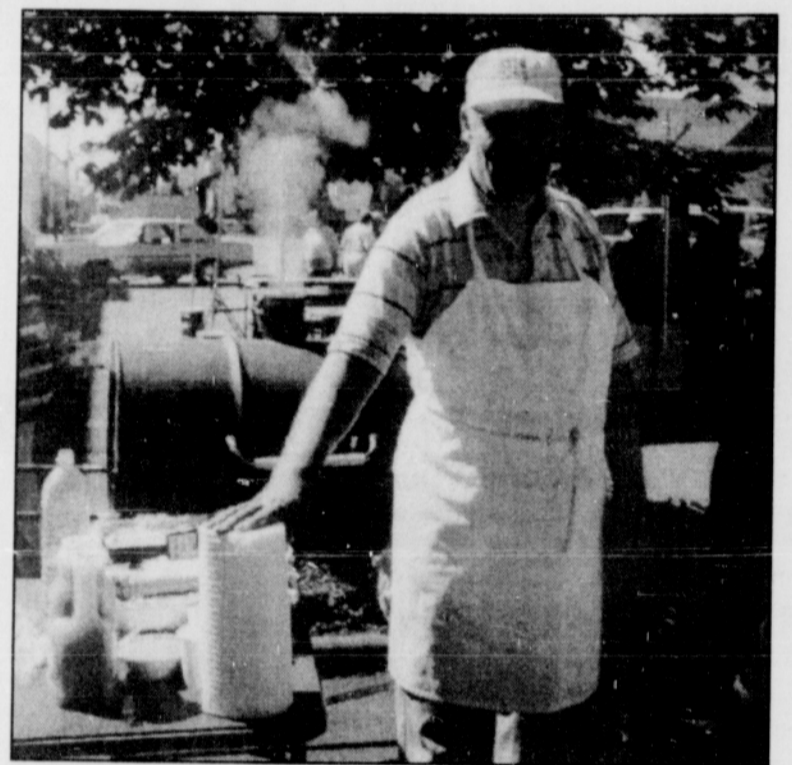

Area businesses are thanked for their support.

Racks of clothes are sold as rummage (above) and cooking (below) is a skill and part of the fun.

Area seniors enjoy a barbecue on a nice summer day.
