

SPORTS

SPORTS BRIEFS

Final Four Next For Lady Pilots

The University of Portland earned a second consecutive NCAA Final Four berth and remained unbeaten in the process with a 1-0 victory over the University of Maryland Saturday at Merlo Field.

The second-ranked Pilots (19-0-2) broke the scoreless tie on senior All-American Shannon MacMillan's goal at 37:39. Jody Dutra provided the setup with a pass to the box. MacMillan ran onto the ball and her 13-yard shot angled past Terrapin goalkeeper Kassie Knecht to the far post.

The teams played through a steady rain for most of the game. Each fired 10 shots on goal. Knecht made seven saves for the Terps. Portland keeper Erin Fahey recorded five and earned her 16th shutout of the season.

"It was a tough game, especially the first 30 minutes," said Pilot coach Clive Charles. "I was relieved to see Shannon score and as the game went on, we felt more comfortable."

Pilot Soccer Playoffs On TV

The men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Portland are advancing in the NCAA national soccer championships.

The men's team will play a NCAA quarterfinal game at Santa Clara on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. The Pilots women's team will play a NCAA semifinal game against Southern Methodist University on Friday in Chapel Hill, N.C. with kickoff set for 4:30 p.m. (PST).

The championship game is scheduled for Sunday at 10:30 a.m. (PST).

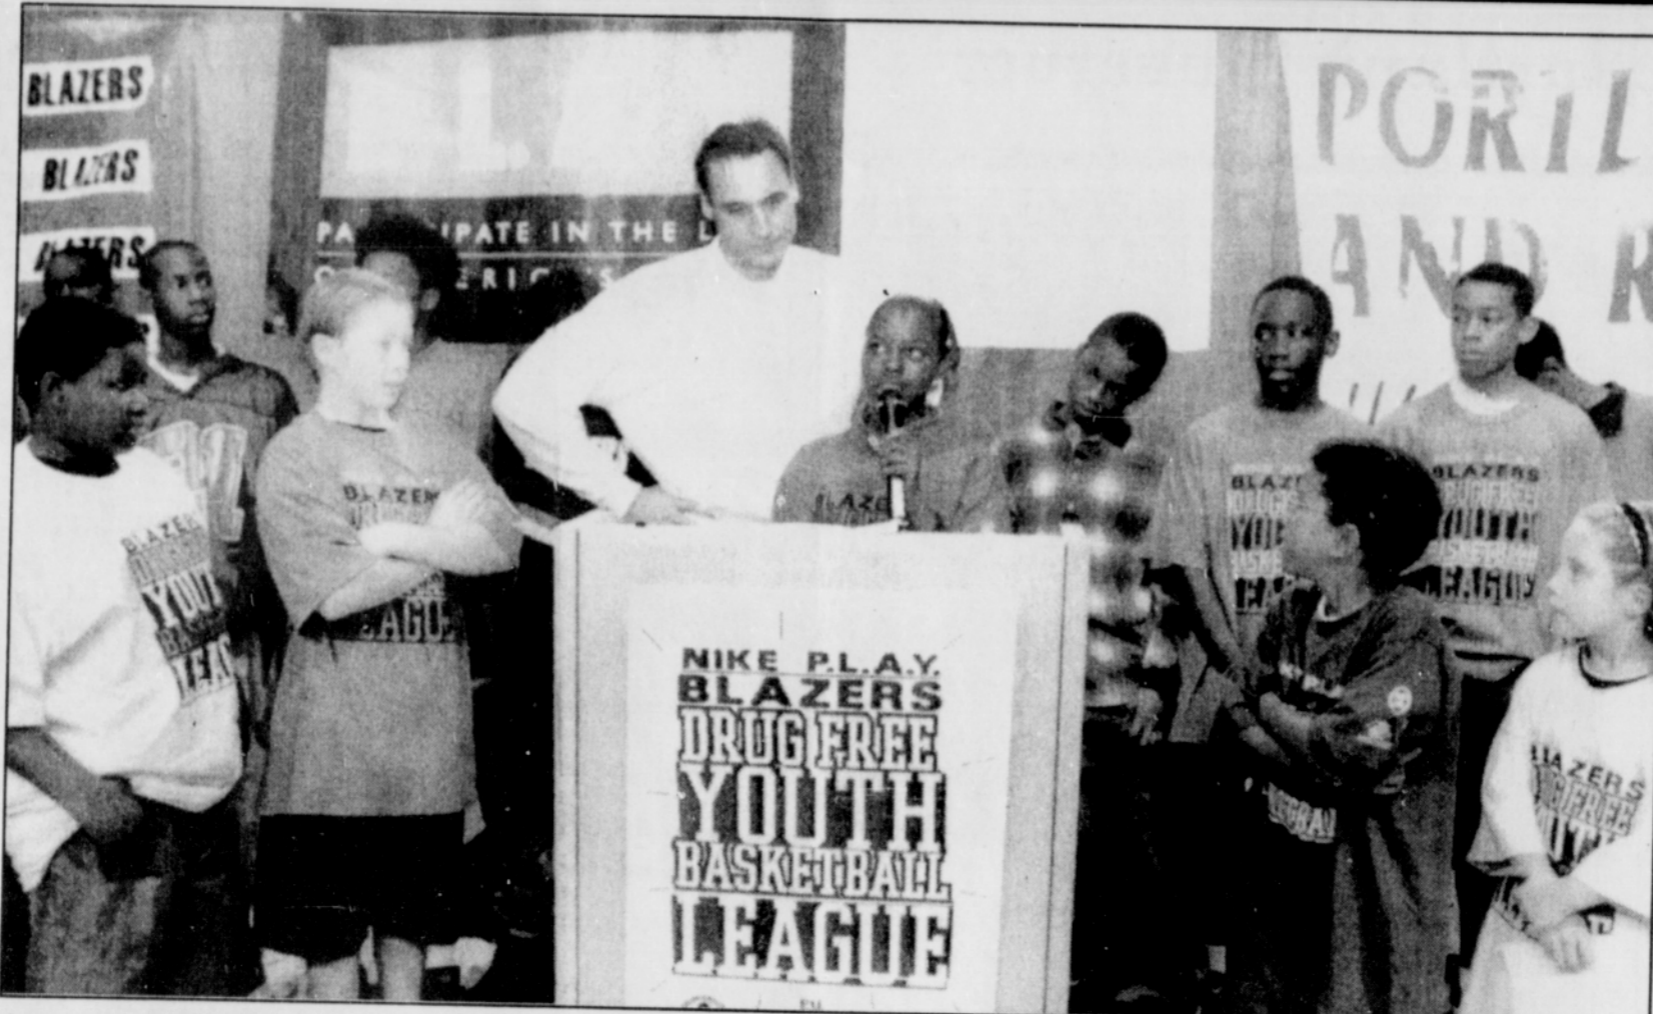

Both the women's semis and final will be televised live on the Prime Sports Network.

Sports Fan?

Results, Spreads, Trivia

Call Now!!!

1-900-388-2700 Ext. 7797
$2.99 per min.
Must be 18 yrs.
Touch-tone Phone Required
Serv-U (619) 645-8434

Area kids and Jim Paxon, a former Trail Blazer and now the assistant general manager for the team, introduce the NIKE P.L.A.Y. Blazers Drug free Youth Basketball League for Portland at-risk youth. The kick-off event was held Wednesday at the Rose Garden arena. More than 3,500 children are expected to participate in the league, formed in coalition with the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Portland Metropolitan Area, the Police Activities League and Portland Parks and Recreation. (Photo by Duane Lewis)

DUCKS FLYING EAST FOR COTTON BOWL

The University of Oregon Alumni Association is offering tour packages to Duck fans eligible for tickets to the 1996 Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1 in Dallas, Texas.

Brochures are being mailed to UO football season-ticket holders, dues-paying members of the association and donors to the university.

Tour features include deluxe accommodations at the Wyndham Anatole, the Duck team headquarters hotel, plus a New Year's Eve dinner and dance, the UO pep rally, the traditional Alumni Association pre-game party at the stadium, plus Cotton Bowl souvenirs and all airport transfers.

Prices for double occupancy are $1,014 for a three-night package and $1,086 for a four-night package.

Land-only packages and other option tours are also available.

Interested alumni and friends may call the UO Cotton Bowl hotline number at (541) 346-8636, (541) 346-5656 or toll free at 1-800-245-2586.

Rose Garden Proceeds Allocated

Opening Weekend Festivities Net $156,000 For Four Area Charities

The Oregon Arena Corporation announced today that the grand opening festivities at the Rose Garden raised $156,000 for four local non-profit organizations.

Boys and Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Portland, the Portland Metropolitan Sports Authority (PMSA), The Urban League of Portland and Legacy Emanuel Children's Hospital will receive contributions totaling $39,000 each.

The funds will be distributed during a special pre-game presentation at the Trail Blazers vs. Chicago Bulls game on Monday, November 27 at the Rose Garden.

"While this donation comes to these four worthy non-profit groups via the Trail Blazers and the Oregon Arena Corporation, the really deserve all the credit," said Bob Whitsitt, Blazers and Oregon Arena Corp. president.

"This donation truly exceeded our wildest expectations and really hammers home the commitment to community and civic pride here in Portland," Whitsitt said.

Grand opening weekend took place October 13-15, and included Friday night's "Ultimate Garden Party," highlighted by a special appearance from comedian Dana Carvey.

The Rose Garden was open to the public both Saturday and Sunday and included activities like shooting hoops on the Rose Garden's new court, skating on the new NHL-regulation ice rink, tours of the -digital production facility - Post-Up Productions, and visits to an Executive Suite.

The event also included live music from a variety of local bands.

Urban League Thankful For Award

When the Portland Trail Blazers first announced plans to build the new Rose Garden arena, it signaled an expanded commitment to the greater Portland community. But few knew just how deep that commitment would run. Now, thanks to the Trail Blazers and the Oregon Arena Corp., the Urban League of Portland has learned first hand with a $39,000 donation for the Rose Garden's opening weekend.

"This substantial contribution adds a crowning touch to our 50th anniversary year," said Lawrence J. Dark, president and CEO of the Urban League. "The Urban League's focus on education, employment and equality has received a boost that will benefit North and Northeast Portland Citizens immeasurably. We are very grateful to the Oregon Arena Corporation and the Portland Trail Blazers for choosing the Urban League as a beneficiary."

Grand Opening Events Boost Portland Sports Scene

Efforts to attract sporting events to Portland have been enhanced with a donation to the Portland Metropolitan Sports Authority from the Portland Trail Blazers and Oregon Arena Corp.

The authority last week announced the receipt of $39,014 from the Rose Garden arena's opening night Ultimate Garden Party and public tours held the weekend of October 14 and 15. "I want to congratulate Paul Allen, the Trail Blazers and the Oregon Arena Corp. for their foresight in using the grand opening of this marvelous building to benefit local charities," said authority president Will Glasgow.

AINSWORTH DRUG

3002 NE Ainsworth 282-0787

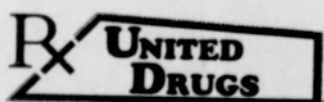

See us for all your Prescription Needs

$3.00 off

Your next new or transferred prescription.

For insurance co-payment, lesser of: copay or $3.00

One prescription per coupon
Coupon expires 12/31/95

English Classes Were Never Like This.

At PCC Cascade, you can learn to use language more skillfully, while exploring subjects that have personal relevance to you!

WR 123 English Composition: Ethnic Communities (CRN 11251)
Mon, Wed, Fri, 12 to 12:50 p.m.

Students of all ages and backgrounds will explore their own or another's family history and ethnic community through interviews, recording family stories, and exploring historical context. The goal is to research and produce a description of an ethnic community. Call Sheila Brown, 978-5405.

HUM 205 African Literature (CRN 13543) Thurs, 6 to 8:40 p.m.

Get a taste of the written and oral literature from various historical periods and geographic locations throughout Africa. Explore the themes of freedom and identity as you experience these stories. Call 978-5250.

WR 216 Advanced Composition: The Art of the Memoir (CRN 16773)
Mon, Wed, Fri, 9 to 9:50 a.m.

Join a group who are writing for their lives! You'll have the opportunity to create, revise and be in control of your life - or at least the way in which it is recorded. Rachel Stevens, 978-5230.

And an art course . . .

Art 116 Basic Design (CRN 11509) Mon, Wed, 12 to 2:50 p.m. Explore color relationships in the context of the contemporary visual world. Consider how the elements of line, shape, texture, value and space express aspects of pattern, rhythm and composition. A creative experience awaits you! Mary Cernyar, 244-6111, ext. 3463.

See your PCC schedule for full course selection.

Winter term starts Jan. 2.

Cascade Campus
705 N. Killingsworth St.

Portland Community College

MARQUIS

Hook ME UP, MACE!

FILA

GHETTO GEAR

CONVERSE

KNOCKOUT

Featuring the nations flyest designers

THE LATEST IN HIPHOP FASHIONS

AACA HOCKEY JERSEY

NIKE

ADIDAS

PELLE PELLE

K-SWISS

LUGS

MLK'S TEN' NA SHOES

WHERE THERE'S ALWAYS A SALE GOING ON.
LOCATED: 3532A NE MLK JR. BLVD.

335-0905

WE CARRY ALL BRAND NAME TENNIS SHOES,
NIKE, K-SWISS
ADIDAS, LUGS, FILA,
CONVERSE.

MLK Ten 'Na Shoes