Good Work *Good People* Good Jobs

Washington Mutual is a successful and progressive regional bank with an expanding network of branches throughout Oregon and the Northwest. This success and growth has created a continuing demand for full and part-time tellers and job opportunities exist throughout the metropolitan area. To help meet this demand, we are holding two Teller Assessments, one on Portland's Eastside and the other on Portland's Westside, on a day of the week that is most convenient for you - Saturday!!

Our free Teller Assessment helps us both by giving you a good understanding of the job's requirements and giving us an idea of your aptitude for a teller position. Previous teller experience is not required, but we are seeking individuals with the ability and willingness to learn, excellent communication skills, and a strong commitment to superior customer service. Applications for employment will be accepted only from those applicants who successfully complete the Teller Assessment.

**Interview Your Manager**

Our hiring managers will be at both events and you'll have the unique opportunity of interviewing these managers as you discuss the job and career opportunities at Washington Mutual. In-depth personal interviews may be scheduled with the manager of your choice.

In addition to a competitive salary schedule, Washington Mutual offers an attractive benefits package for both full and part-time employees, professional development and advancement opportunities. Because of our commitment to customer service and convenience, a variety of schedules are available.
