

Police Chief Laurie Pritchett of Albany, Georgia, placing Martin Luther King, Jr., and Dr. W.G. Anderson under arrest.

“When I speak of love I am not speaking of some sentimental and weak response. I am speaking of that force which all of the great religions have seen as the supreme unifying principle of life. Love is somehow the key that unlocks the door which leads to ultimate reality.”

NECDC....Building Affordable Housing

“The dream is one of equality of opportunity, of privilege and property widely distributed; a dream of a land where men will not take necessities from the many to give luxuries to the few; a dream of a land where men do not agree that the color of a man’s skin determines the content of his character; a dream of a place where all our gifts and resources are held not for us alone but as instruments of service for the rest of humanity; the dream of a country where every man will respect the dignity and worth of all human personality, and men will dare to live together as brothers...”

What Martin Luther King Means to me

BY JOSEPH PAYTON

To me Martin Luther King Jr. represents a great leader, a man with power. Dr. Martin Luther King was a good man I feel that he accomplished much that he wanted, yet much remains undone, he had his ups and downs and I feel that he was a great leader for our black community, a man who wanted peace not violence. Dr. King was my idol. I feel that there was not anybody who was as strong as Martin Luther King. Dr. King traveled all around the world to speak his words. White folk gave him a lot of respect, but the white folks are still prejudiced. During his life Martin Luther King had a lot of people’s support, though now I feel that some people have lost their respect and removed their support for Dr. King because our blacks are now starting to pick up guns and kill each other. Dr. King wanted peace, ever lasting life, for man kind. Dr. King would not want his kids to grow up killing each other like so many are doing today. He wanted blacks to get treated as individuals and equals because his message said we shall overcome, stop all this madness, become as one and don’t let anyone split us up. Martin Luther King will be missed, he did a lot to help us as well as whites, hear freedom ring in our minds and hearts.

What the King Meant to me

A RAP, BY JOHNNY CLARK

Martin Luther King was a civil rights leader, all he stood for was peace and freedom.
“I want you to be first in love”, “I want you to be first in moral excellence”, “I want you to be the first in generosity”. If you want to be important.
He received advanced degrees In Theology from Crozer Seminary and Boston University.
Before returning to the south in 1954
To serve as a pastor in Montgomery Alabama
To help all kinds of families
In the South
He had to let them no what he was about.
Peace, freedom and wisdom
As he was on tours,
He represented the preaching
So all people can represent
The real teaching
So all people can represent
Him with equality.
So “I have a dream”
Can mean the most to me.

“Happy Birthday Dr. King”
