Public Notice

Effective June 16, 1997, the Housing Authority of Portland (HAP) will open the two bedroom waiting list for thirty days (until July 15, 1997) for the Low Rent Public Housing Program.

This waiting list has been closed since June 1, 1996, to all but the following:

- * Families who qualify for priority placement due to terminal illness; and,
- * Families who are referred by agencies participating in the Special Needs Housing and Services Program.

HAP has 641 two bedroom units and currently has 337 families on the waiting list for two bedroom housing assistance. At the current turnover rate, this list represents a wait of up to two years for some families. It is now necessary to briefly open this waiting list to add names of interested households for HAP's two bedroom units.

Comments may be submitted in writing to the following address and must be postmarked no later than June 13, 1997
