Jazz in the afternoon

Chemeketa Community College and Willamette Valley Vineyards introduce first-rate jazz entertainment

Chemeketa Community College's Jazz in the Afternoon series has for the past three years steadily become the standard for first-rate jazz entertainment in the Mid-Willamette Valley on Sunday afternoons.

Jazz greats like Jessica Williams, Mel Brown, Ron Steen, Dan Balmer, Kelly Broadway, Randy Porter, Art Abrams and many others have thrilled audiences in Chemeketa's intimate Theatre 116 on the Salem campus with their skill, virtuosity and jazz musicianship.

Now beginning with a concert on Friday, June 27, Chemeketa's Jazz in the Afternoon becomes a co-presented series with Willamette Valley Vineyards.

But on June 27 at 6 p.m., the music shifts to the winery's outdoor area, weather permitting, with its expansive vistas and beautiful setting south of Salem. In the event of inclement weather, the concert will move indoors to the Winery's Great Room.

This will be a the first fully collaborated event in a series that will alternate between Theater 116 on campus and Willamette Valley Vineyards through May 17.

Bernie Knab, Chemeketa's Humanities and Communications Department director, is host for the series.
