Linda Hornbuckle "Soul Diva"

Blues, Soul, R&B, and Gospel

She began singing at age 6 in the Grace & Truth Pentecostal Church. Pastored by her father, Bishop H. Hornbuckle in Portland, Oregon. She has been thrilling audiences in the Northwest, Europe, Canada and across the U.S.A. in several different capacities, back-up singer for major touring acts or as a front person for someone else's band or part of a group. But now she is undertaking the controls of her own ship and has launched her voyage into stardom as a Solo Act just simply called "Linda Hornbuckle" with one of the finest set musicians in the Northwest.

There will be a "big CD release party" for Portland this Saturday, September 27th at Key Largo, followed the next day, Sunday 28th with a show and autograph session at Music Millennium (Burnside) at 1:00PM.

The CD will be released to radio nationwide as well as Canada and parts of Europe in accordance with the following formats: Blues & R&B, Adult Contemporary and Urban. One tune, "There Was A Time" is tentatively set to be released as a single to national Top 40 AM radio on October 1st.
