

Words from Senator
Ron Wyden

"To achieve Dr. King's dream of judging people on the content of their character rather than the color of one's skin. We must commit to the love, nurturing and education of our children. Our children must be our highest priority, and we must demonstrate that priority by supporting families, providing the education and the economic base required for full development."

I Have A Dream
Martin Luther King, Jr.

I Am Happy to join with you today in what will go down in history as the greatest demonstration for freedom in the history of our nation.

Fivescore years ago, a great American, in whose symbolic shadow we stand today, signed the Emancipation Proclamation. This momentous decree came as a great beacon light of hope to millions of Negro slaves who had been seared in the Flames of withering injustice. It came as a joyous day-break to end the long night of their captivity.

But one hundred years later, the Negro still is not free; one hundred years later, the life of the Negro is still...

"Dream  Speech"

"Philanthropy

is commendable, but it must not cause the philanthropist to overlook the circumstances of economic injustice which make philanthropy necessary."

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
Strength of Love
