

...creative protest to degenerate into physical violence. Again and again we must rise to the majestic heights of meeting physical force with soul force.

The marvelous new militancy with has engulfed the Negro community must not lead us to a distrust of all white people, for many of our white brothers, as evidenced by their presence here today, have come to realize that their destiny is tied up with our destiny and they have come to realize that their freedom is inextricably bound to our freedom. This offense we share mounted to storm the battlements of injustice must be carried forth by a biracial army. We cannot walk alone.

And as we walk, we must make the pledge that we shall always march ahead. We cannot turn back. There are those who are asking the devotees of civil rights, "When will you be satisfied?" We can never be satisfied as long as the negro is the victim of the unspeakable horrors of police brutality....

Today you know it was all worth it.

*It doesn't seem that long ago...
tears on the first day of school,
fear of not knowing anyone,
laughing with new friends,
bewildered by algebra,
practicing to make the team,
holding the future in his hands on graduation day.*

A good education prepares Oregon's children for tomorrow's challenges. The Oregon Lottery is proud to provide $1 out of every $10 that currently funds Oregon's public schools, helping make the future bright for our children.
