

“Love is somehow the key that unlocks the door which leads to the ultimate reality.”

Martin Luther King Jr.

815 Northeast Halsey
Portland, Oregon 97232
(503) 287-4594
FAX (503) 282-7833

A future King: Coretta Scott (middle row, second from right) with classmates at Antioch College in Ohio, before she went on to study at the New England Conservatory of Music. She had planned to pursue a career as a singer before she met and married King and became an active figure in the civil rights movement.

Ceres Behavioral Healthcare Systems

Joins with all members of our diverse community
In Celebrating the contributions and spirit of Dr. Martin Luther King.

Ceres, a division of Green Spring Health Services, is a behavioral healthcare organization that offers employee assistance programs and managed mental health and chemical dependency services.
Equal Opportunity Employer

"An apology is the first step. How do we learn to appreciate and accept people different than we are. The apology won't do away with all the discrimination that exists."

Jo Ann Bowman, State Representative

A Song For Martin Luther King My Brother...

By SAVON LINDSEY

For he was like a Midnight Star shooting across the Sky; and today we give Praise to that man for his eloquent freedom cry, a profound and everlasting, so special light...
Ever glowing, ever sparkling, ever shining so bright...
So full of Love he had like no other; unlike some of my sisters or my brothers,
For he had that so special magic, he was so many things; but in his words you could hear so clearly, "let Freedom Ring!"
From Selma Alabama to Washington and D.C.
His cry for freedom would one day work for you and me; and sing it did eloquently and magnificent his voice...
Letting every man and woman know that finally there was a choice and I can still remember the Greatness of that man; saying divided we fall and together we stand, And the path he walked for so long unseen; but I can still hear his voice saying "I have a Dream" Many will say that he was here long before his time; but his gift of life for us will always shine, and it was that many years not long ago He would give God his life...and leave us his soul...
To me he'll always be like a Mighty river touching all with Love;
and today I sing a special song just for him to take above, Always and forever, I'll love you like no other;
From me to you, A song for Martin Luther King; my Brother!

"Keep Living the Dream"

13th Annual Tribute to
Martin Luther King, Jr.

Monday, January 19, 1998

Jefferson High School
Performing Arts Center
5210 N. Kerby

12:00 – 6:00 p.m.

Live Broadcast/Simulcast

Portland Cable Access
Channel 11

Jefferson High School Television Department
Channel 53

KBOO 90.7 FM

ADMISSION

$1 donation or 2 cans of non-perishable food.

A Production of World Arts Foundation, Inc.

Sponsored by: Portland Association of Teachers, Portland Public Schools, Nike Inc., Tucker Charitable Trust, Jefferson High School, Oregon Education Association, United Airlines, Black United Fund of Oregon, and Portland Cable Access.

For Information Call 222-1457

