

"...I must confess that I am not afraid of the word 'tension.' I have earnestly opposed violent tension, but there is a type of constructive, nonviolent tension which is necessary for growth."

Some of the thousands at the historic march.

"When I speak of love I am not speaking of some sentimental and weak response. I am speaking of that force which all of the great religions have seen as the supreme unifying principle of life. Love is somehow the key that unlocks the door which leads to ultimate reality."

- Martin Luther King Jr.

As We Celebrate Our 37th Year Of Service To Our Community, We Honor Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. And The Hope He Brought To People!

"...the dream of a country where every man will respect the dignity and worth of all human all personality..."
