Tucker taps into cool $7 million

Stand-up comic Chris Tucker will get a $7 million payday to star in "Double-O-Soul," an action comedy about an ultracool secret agent who does things his own way. It begins shooting in May. Tucker made his film debut in the 1995 comedy "Friday." He then received critical acclaim for his performance in the Hughes brothers' Vietnam-era drama "Dead Presidents." Last year, he appeared in science-fiction thriller "The Fifth Element" and starred in the comedy "Money Talks." Tucker is now filming action comedy "Rush Hour."
