Local Artists Bring Columbia Gorge Legend to the Stage!

Bridge of the Gods directed by Jodi Eichelberger is a collaboration between Tears of Joy and three talented Native Americans: storyteller Ed Edmo, artist Lillian Pitt, and musician Arlie Neskahi.

This production was made possible by a $30,000 grant from the National Endowment for the Arts, one of the largest to any organization in the Northwest.

Gather around our fire as She Who Watches and Coyote take you on a journey across the legendary Bridge of the Gods. Petroglyphs are pulled from the rocks of the Columbia Gorge as masks and puppets weave this story of fragile peace.

Bridge to another culture. Bridge across time. Bridge of the Gods. Recommended for ages 5 and up.

Featuring Famous Cajun Flavor!

"The Retirement StartUp Kit"

Millions of dollars in pension benefits, life insurance proceeds, and other assets go unclaimed every year because people fail to leave better information for their loved ones.

A new publication, The Retirement StartUp Kit (a three-ring binder with removable pages, storage pockets, and fill-in-the-black forms) is designed to assist families in organizing their important documents before there is a death in the family. Co-author Tonya Moore Blake was a Financial Analyst for one of the nation's largest insurance companies and Pamela-Denise Quince was a new attorney handling estate matters when they created the Kit for their own family members. When in their professional capacities these two African American women discovered that the community at large was facing similar issues, they decided to resign from their positions, become authors, and offer the Kit to the public.

The woodchuck belongs to the squirrel family.
