

Family Living

Peninsula Children's Center

Renee Cox, child care specialist, offers a comfortable lap to Chase Warren and Gianni Taylor.

Keenan O'Connor and Judy Plozel, child care specialist, share the joys of reading at Peninsula Children's Center. The Center is working with Multnomah County's "Oregon's Child: Everyone's Business" campaign to increase awareness of the importance of early childhood development by providing support for parents and positive interaction and nurturing of its young children.

Fortunately, there still remains a safe haven on television. We're OPB, and we've got fun, nonviolent shows like Barney & Friends, The Puzzle Place and now Arthur, all part of the Ready to Learn Service on OPB.

Programs that reinforce your family's values. We don't think any budding young artist should be inspired by violence. Do you? OPB. Part of a happy childhood for over a quarter of a century.

THIS IS WHY THERE'S OPB.

The Ready to Learn Service on PBS is brought to you by OPB in part by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.
