Jefferson Dancers In Another Stunning Success

routine. Of the eight Jefferson High students who auditioned for scholarships, Djamila Moore received a tuition scholarship from Jacksonville University (FL) and for possible admission. "Getting the opportunity to meet hundreds of dancers from around the world was great. Area residents can see the outstanding Jefferson Dancers Marcie Munneryn received a talent scholarship from Mercyhurst College (PA). Both schools are known for their excellent dance programs.

Kevin Commodore, Meghan Harshman, Damon Keller and Jessica Zarins were recognized in the auditions and interviewed at their annual performances on May 7, 8, 9, and 10 at the Newmark Theater, Portland Center for the Performing Arts in downtown Portland. For ticket information contact the PCPA Box Office, Fastixx (224-TIXX) or Darlene Shanks at 916-5356.

The Jefferson Dancers have added another stunning success to their two decades of international recognition. In their first appearance at the by-invitation-only 4th National High School Dance Festival, the twenty-two dancers from Portland's Jefferson High School received a rousing, standing ovation from 1,500 of their peers for their performance of In the Mood. The New World School of Arts and Miami Dance Futures sponsored the Dance Festival, which took place during the last week of March in Miami, Florida. The Festival included two-and-a-half days of master classes taught by some of the nation's finest dance instructors, student performances and auditions for college scholarships. The concluding event, a final gala, featured top student performers. Among those selected to appear at the gala were Jefferson Dancers Damon and Demetrius Keller. These high school seniors were honored as outstanding student choreographers and received cash prizes for their tap
