OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY ENVIRONMENTAL COMPUTING CENTER ADDITION Request for Proposals

Oregon State University is seeking qualifications from architectural firms interested in providing design through construction phase services for the OSU Environmental Computing Center Addition. Oregon State University (OSU) is preparing to add two stories to the Environmental Computing Center for the College of Oceanic and Atmospheric Sciences (COAS) at its Corvallis Campus. COAS was recently awarded a $2 million grant for this purpose. The existing one-story structure, which is adjacent to Burt Hall, was completed in 1993. It was designed and constructed so two additional floors could be added in the future. The design objectives for floors two and three are to provide space to enhance and extend the research activities that use the large-scale, high-end computers housed on the ground floor of the Environmental Computing Center. The space will primarily consist of computer research laboratories and offices for faculty engaged in these research activities.

The proposal responses will be used to develop a "short list" of three to five firms who will be invited to participate in an interview.

Interested firms should contact Lori Fulton, University Architect, OSU Facilities Services, 100 Adams Hall, Corvallis, Oregon 97331-2001, or at Fax (541) 737-3724, to obtain a copy of the Request for Proposals (RFP). Responses to the RFP will be due by 5PM, Thursday, January 21, 1999. No responses will be accepted after the specified date and time. Responses may be rejected for non-compliance with all response requirements and procedures, or for good cause upon a finding that it is in the interest of OSU to do so.
