

The Illusion Of Freedom

By BEN MISSLER

"We are called to be a people of conviction, not conformity; of moral nobility, not social respectability. We are commanded to live differently and according to a higher loyalty." — Martin Luther King

Are we living in an illusion of Freedom?

Everywhere you look, one sees evidence of control in every aspect of our lives.

Little by little, our Constitutional and Sovereign rights to own and use our property, our rights to travel, rights of privacy, freedom of speech, rights to bear arms and other legal rights are gradually being controlled or taken away from us. Are these violent manipulations an accident?

The rise of economic chaos, shortage of food and energy, confiscatory taxes, a crisis in education, wars and threats of war and other diversions to condition Americans for a new societal order.

The techniques used by ill-intentioned manipulators is as old as Politics itself. It is the Hegelian principle of bringing about a three step process:

1. THESIS is to create a problem.
2. ANTI-THESIS is to generate opposition to the problem to get a reaction such as fear, panic or hysteria.
3. SYNTHESIS is to offer a definite one step solution to the problem, bring about change which would have been impossible to impose on people without the proper psychological conditioning achieved in stage one and two.

These powerful and insidious schemes by subterfuge, create widespread confusion in all human affairs. The schemes aim to influence, then control, any and all the natural financial affairs of every person through destabilizing, disinformation and dismantling of the lawful social and political structures by which free people govern themselves.

An example of this is the conditioning of the people to believe that we are a Democracy. We are not a Democracy but a Republic.

In a Democracy, you have a Mob Rule (where the majority vote rules right or wrong) and never lasts very long. Historically, it is designed to fail. That is why our Forefathers set up a Representation Republic where we the people do not vote for the laws that govern ourselves. We are supposed to elect statesmen of impeccable, honest character who will look after our interest as well as the country's and the God Given Rights of the People as a whole.

A much more simple story could be of the two frogs. You have two pots of water, one boiling, the other lukewarm. Put the frog in the boiling water and he will make every effort to escape, but put him in the lukewarm water, he will merely relax and feel comfortable while the heat is slowly, gradually turned up till he flops over dead, not knowing what happened.

Who is the They manipulating us? Are they the Rich, The Money Changers, The Obligarchy, The Bureaucrats, The Communists, The Aliens or possibly Us?

Well, what can we do? There are several things:

- Get more informed, listen to alternative news and get educated.

·Look for the Hegelian signs of entities creating the problem, getting the reaction and their just happening to have the exact solution to the problem that was created.

·Keep an open mind to alternative views.

·Watch for disinformation or controlled bias news.

·Get involved at local as well as at national levels.

Are we a sleeping giant about to be awakened? Our apathy and ignorance is violence towards ourselves for not seeking Truth and Freedom.

In the words of Marianne Williamson, author of The Healing of America. "The leader with conscience must be willing to risk repudiation. The person with conscience must be willing to risk being considered a whiner by polite society. The person with conscience has a responsibility to be a thorn in the side of a complacent status quo. The person with conscience holds up a mirror to the world, which must include himself. The person with conscience is an agent of awakening in a world where there is a collective urge to sleep."

The Whole World In His Hands

If we could, at this time, shrink the earth's population to a village of precisely 100 people, with all existing human ratios remaining the same, it would like this:

- There would be 57 Asians, 21 Europeans, 14 from the Western Hemisphere (North and South), and 8 Africans.
- 70 would be nonwhite; 30 white.
- 70 would be non-Christian; 30 Christian.
- Fifty percent of the entire world wealth would be in the hands of only 6 people.
- All 6 would be citizens of the United States.
- 70 would be unable to read.
- 50 would suffer from malnutrition.
- 80 would live in substandard housing.
- Only 1 would have a college education.

Holistic Political Principles

By MARIANNE WILLIAMSON

·The power within us is greater than any power outside us.

·Government should concern itself less with how to allocate our external resources and more with how to harness our internal ones.

·The source of wealth is our capacity for genius. Creation of wealth through the stimulation of creative thinking is thus the primary source of economic recovery and stimulation.

·The highest political dialogue is not adversarial but rather a synergistic conversation between high-minded liberal visions for the country and high-minded conservative ones.

·The politics of hate is a branch that does not bear fruit. That is why another branch is starting to grow.

·Love is a more powerful political and social tool than hatred.

·We will not move forward as a nation without repenting for our lack of righteousness toward other Americans in the past and present, and all other nations of the world.

·We must acknowledge the power of the inner life, the wisdom found in silence, and the primacy of the voice of conscience.

·Otherwise, the American experiment will end. It shall have failed.
