

IN PRINT

Power, Money And Sex: How Success Almost Ruined My Life

(Word Publishing, 1998) By Deion Sanders' Autobiography

Few men have lived the life of achievement and fame of sports legend Deion Sanders, and few have ridden the despair of riches to the point of suicide. The Dallas Cowboy considered by many to be America's finest athlete - as well as one of its most flamboyant - tells how success almost killed him. In Power, Money & Sex, Sanders gives reader's an intimate look inside his high-profile life and contract negotiations, and tells how he crafted the popular persona, known as "Prime Time" that carried him from inner-city obscurity to the sports hall of fame. Sanders straightens out fans old and new on his new-found satisfaction in life - in front of and behind the camera. Readers of all ages will find inspiration and strength in this first book by Sanders.

Deion comments, "Power, money and sex. They are such powerful urges in most people. Some people spend their whole lives thinking that if they could just get more power, money, and sex, they would be happy. But as somebody who has had more than my share of all three, I can tell you this: In themselves, those things will not make you happy. It's okay to have them, but if they're not put into proper perspective, and if they're not used with appropriate balance and restraint, they can kill you."

Keep your eye on Focus!

SLAM DUNK!

CHRIS WEBBER

(AKA C. WEBB)

TOO MUCH DRAMA

$9.44 CS

$12.99 CD

NBA All-Star Chris Webber (C. Webber) releases his debut album entitled Too Much Drama on his newly formed Humility Records. The album blends a variety of tracks with old school nuances, hip-hop flavors and an almost autobiographical look into the former Fab Fiver's life.

His first single Gansta, Gangsta (How You Do It) features none other than the "Dog Pound" gangsta himself: Kurupt, as well as a Busta Rhymes sample. On Nuthin To Do, Webber enlists the help of friend and rapper Redman. Keepz Burnin includes samples from Erykah Badu and Phil Collins. Chris also uses producers from his hometown of Detroit to make sure he has home base covered.

Selections

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|--------------------|
| 1. All I Got | 8. Played Nomoe |
| 2. Ride Wit Me | 9. A Whole Lotta |
| 3. Gangsta, Gangsta (How U Do It) | 10. Nuffin Ta Do |
| 4. Need Somebody | 11. My Pops |
| 5. Loc Down | 12. Feel My Vibe |
| 6. She Got Me | 13. Too Much Drama |
| 7. Keepz Burnin | 14. The Answer |

Offer Good Thru 4-20-99

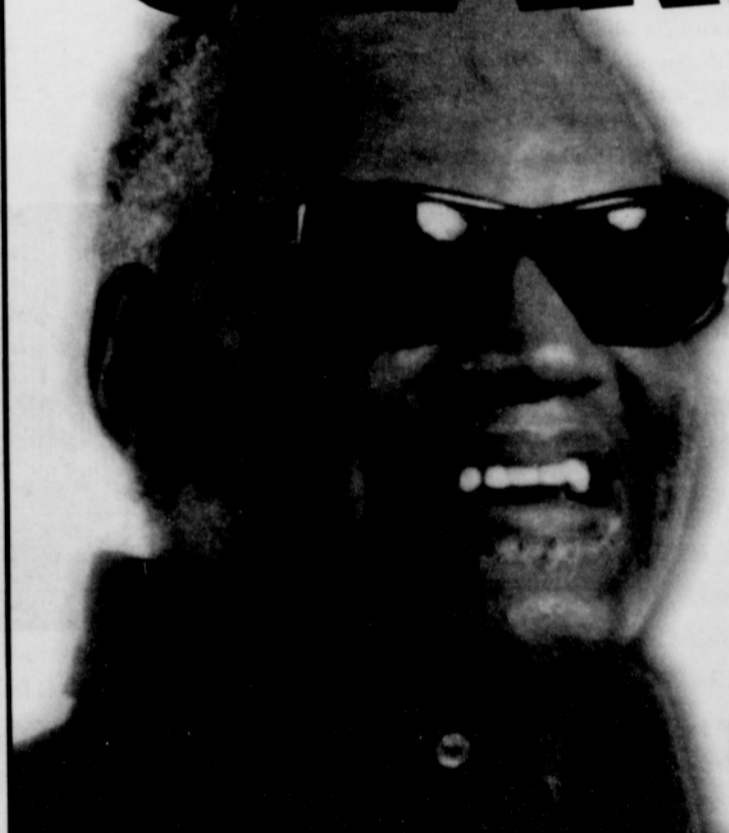

Music Millennium

3158 E Burnside • 231-8926

CHINOOK WINDS CASINO

P R E S E N T S

RAY CHARLES

April 30 & May 1 8pm

TICKETS $30 - $60

1-888-MAIN ACT FOR TICKET SALES • ON THE BEACH IN LINCOLN CITY