Oregon Office Of Energy
Request for Proposals #99-18
Technical Services For Public Sector Clients
Deadline: May 7, 1999

The Oregon Office of Energy has programs to help save energy and money in public buildings and facilities. The Office of Energy is seeking proposals from firms and individuals qualified to provide energy-related technical services. The required services include on-site energy audits and studies, project verifications, and retro commissioning.

The range of facilities served by the Office of Energy includes office buildings, schools, maintenance garages and shops, institutional housing and correction facilities, swimming pools, water and wastewater treatment systems. Areas of expertise include boilers, chillers/refrigeration, motors, controls (pneumatic and electronic), steam and water distribution systems, and air/water heating systems.

The Office of Energy plans to award multiple contracts for this work to obtain a greater range of availability and expertise. Interested firms or individuals that specialize in certain types of facilities and/or services are encouraged to submit proposals. Firms or individuals may propose to provide one or all of the services identified in the RFP.

The initial term of the contracts is two years, beginning July 1, 1999. However, the Office of Energy reserves the right to extend contracts for an additional two years or otherwise amend any of the terms of any or all of the contracts which may be awarded as a result of this RFP. The dollar amounts available for contracts under this RFP are unknown. Contracts to be awarded may be partially funded by federal funds, but the amount is unknown. It is estimated the minimum amount available for all contracts over the next four years will be approximately $275,000 with the maximum amount estimated to be up to $900,000. The Office of Energy estimates that individual contracts awarded under this RFP may range from $20,000 to $250,000 over the term of the contract(s), depending upon such factors as available funding, program authorization, and demand for services. There is no guarantee of any volume of work or dollar amount.

To obtain a complete copy of this RFP (#99-18), contact Jan Simmons at the Oregon Office of Energy, 625 Marion Street NE, Suite 1, Salem, OR 97301-3742, telephone 503-378-6968 or 800-221-8035 (Oregon only), or e-mail: janis.h.simmons@state.or.us/external/oeo, then click on the "Jobs and RFP" button.

Responses must be received at the Salem Office of the Oregon Office of Energy by 5:00 PM, Friday, May 7, 1999. No Late Proposals Will Be Accepted.
