

Art Beat '99

Portland Community College is celebrating the arts from Monday, May 10 until Friday, May 14. The following is a sample list of campus events for this year's Art Beat '99.

MONDAY MAY 10

Brody Theatre - Improv!

12 - 1PM Cafeteria, East Wing

Taking cues from the audience, Portland's premier improvisational theater group creates characters and stories "on-the-spot," delighting and confounding the audience. Portland's Newest Hip-Hop Artists - Presented by Money Green Records

1 - 2PM Student Services Building Courtyard

(Rain location: Cafeteria, Student Center)

Hear the latest music on the Portland Hip-Hop scene with the tight beats of Producer Boogie Man as he teams with the individual sounds and personalities of local artists Mr. Unknown, Droopy, Lady Lan, and Moe Serious - a mix that blends the sound of West Coast and East Coast Hip-Hop, R&B, Dance, and Funk.

TUESDAY MAY 11

The Lelooska Family - Native American Storytelling and Slides

11AM - 12PM Terrell Hall 122

From Ariel, Washington, the Lelooska Family headquarters, comes a Living History Program, featuring Native American art in the form of storytelling, dance, and masks. Join Chief Don Lelooska and his family, well known both as artists and educators, for this unique cultural experience.

WEDNESDAY MAY 12

Northwest Visions - Film and Video Program and Discussion

7:30PM - 9:30PM Terrell Hall 122

Don't miss this opportunity to see the Portland debut of Northwest Visions, a showcase of films and videos by women artists living in the Northwest. Co-sponsored by the Sylvania Women's Resource Center, the program offers an exciting selection of imagination - expanding works of various styles. These shorts will take you on different journeys through animation, narrative, and experimentation, encompassing established makers and fresh voices. Northwest Visions is a program by the Northwest Film Center, Portland, Oregon. Curated by Enie Vaisburd.

THURSDAY MAY 13

Guadalupe Urbina - Music Performance
12PM - 1PM Student Services

Building Courtyard
(Rain location: Cafeteria)

Renowned Costa Rican singer and songwriter Guadalupe Urbina brings a wide repertoire of songs in Spanish to her audience. Her messages and musical passion make her an unforgettable performer.

FRIDAY MAY 14

Fiction, Poetry, and Art Alive - Literary Reading

7PM - 8AM Terrell Hall 112

Fiction, Poetry, and Art Alive jams to the brim a wide variety of literary and artistic work. Student sculpture and watercolors will be on display while at least a dozen students and contributors to the forthcoming issue of Cascade's own Pointed Circle will step up to the mike and read selections from original work. Come hear tomorrow's literary voices today!
