

Mother's Day Events

Stroll the Waterfront

Stroll the waterfront with Mom this year, then treat her to a special Mother's Day brunch at the Harborside restaurant (on 309 SW Montgomery). The cost is $11.95 per person. Call 503/220-1865 for reservations before they are fully booked.

Wisdom Of The Elders

Wisdom of the Elders, Inc., a Native American cultural preservation and education organization, extends a hearty welcome to the public to attend "An Afternoon with Wisdom of the Elders" on Sunday,

May 9 from noon until 5 PM. This Mother's Day gathering is the fourth in their series of multicultural celebrations and will be held at Portland State University's Smith Center at 1825 SW Broadway (at Montgomery Street) in downtown Portland. At this celebration, they plan to demonstrate and honor the richness of Native American heritage and cultural values. At the same time, we will acknowledge the area's diverse Asian-American community. Call Cheryl Nathan or Rose High Bear at 775-4014.

Brunch At The Zoo

Lavish Mom with good food and fun at the Oregon Zoo. Brunch will be served from 9 AM until 1:30 PM. Prices are $12.95 for those over 12 years old and $6.95 for those 3 and up.

A Tribute To Women And Children Of The World

Capturing the cultures, people, and flavor of an around-the-world odyssey, Susan Kuznitsky honors women and children of the world for Mother's Day and through the month of May at the Antoinette Hatfield Gallery. The tribute was inspired by Kuznitsky's travels, and her "real life" experience as the mother of two young children. The "Global Odyssey" is a series of paintings depicting women and children of the world at the Antoinette Hatfield Gallery (55 SW Taylor St.) from May 6-28.

Rhododendron Gardens

The Rhododendron Gardens (at SW 28th Ave. across from Reed College) will be having a plant sale on Mother's Day. Stroll through multitudes of gorgeous azalea and rhododendron bushes in bloom and feed the ducks. A memorable event for all. Admission is $2 for adults and children 12 years old or under can enter for free.

African American HIV/AIDS Candlelight Vigil

The first annual African American HIV/AIDS Vigil, commemorating African Americans who are living or have died with HIV/AIDS will take place on Saturday, May 8. The event is being held on Mother's Day Weekend to honor and validate the mothers who have cared for and nurtured the sick, homeless, and marginalized members of our communities. The Vigil will be located at Lutheran Inner-City Ministries, 4219 NE Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. From 7-9 PM. Call 281-7036.

The Natural Way

Vi Hilbert, a storyteller and Greatgrandmother of Upper Skagit Nation will be speaking at the Unity World Healing Center (366 Third Street) in Lake Oswego. Vi has been declared a National Historic Treasure. She is part of the Natural Way series that's co-sponsored by the Earth and Spirit Council, The Institute for World Healing and Eagle Flight Center. This special event will be on May 7 from 7:30 until 9:30 PM.

"Global Odyssey" is a series of paintings depicting women and children of the world at the Antoinette Hatfield Gallery (55 SW Taylor St.) from May 6-28.
