

MASTERS of Big Entertainment

By Joy Ramos

Major musical artists are arriving to the Rose City to entertain in this year's new concert season. Thanks to the promotional efforts of Dave Leiken, Portland has earned its status as a "hot spot" for these entertainers to perform.

Leiken has been instrumental in attracting sought-after entertainers for over twenty years. He has managed to bring in top draws like Seal, Tina Turner, Grover Washington Jr., Robert Cray Band and many other greats. As a rule, he promotes concerts that all people would like.

David Leiken has remained true and

"fixed" in developing Portland's music scene. His long-time friend and business associate, Steve McCann (from Denver, CO.) was lured to this city to join him in that effort. They continue to maintain a long friendship and shared history together as independent concert

David Leiken is the owner of Rosemont Theatre, Double Tee Promotions, Fastixx and Lucky Records.

Band Together! To Benefit Hands On Portland

In a typical four hours, Hands On Portland (HOP) volunteers can weather-proof an elderly person's home, clear a trail, prepare animals for adoption, serve meals to the homeless, plant a community garden or guide a creative project for kids. But for four hours on May 20, HOP volunteers - and the general public - will take off their work caps and put on their dancing shoes for Band Together!, a party to celebrate volunteerism. All proceeds benefit HOP, which mobilizes teams of volunteers on diverse service projects that are "done in a day" and have a direct and ongoing impact on the community.

Portland favorites Pepe and the Bottle Blondes, a 12-piece Latin/swing band, lead the festivities at the Roseland Theater. Jamey Hampton & The Essentials, a jazz-fusion ensemble, begin the evening. Doors open at 7 PM and music start at 8 PM. Tickets are $10 in advance by calling Hands On Portland at 503/234-3581 or Fastixx at 1-800-992-8499, and $15 at the door. All proceeds benefit Hands On Portland's mission of building the community through volunteer service. The event is open to anyone age 21 and older.

For more information about Band Together!, volunteering with HOP or designing a new project, please call HOP at 503/234-3581.
